Philadelphia, January 28, 1761.

Abſtract of an ACT of PARLIAMENT, paſſed in the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of his preſent MAJESTY, intituled, An ACT for veſting certain Eſtates in Pennſylvania, New-Jerſey, and Maryland, belonging to the Proprietors of a Partnerſhip, called, The Pennſylvania Land Company in London, in Truſtees to be ſold; and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned.

THE Act recites a Conveyance in Fee, dated the 11th and 12th of Auguſt 1699, from William Penn to Tobias Collet, Michael Ruſſell, Daniel Quare, and Henry Gouldney, of ſeveral Lots in Philadelphia; and a Tract of Land in the County of Bucks in Pennſylvania, granted to Richard Noble; and of One Hundred Acres of Land in the ſaid County, and all Buildings and Improvements thereon; and of Sixty Thouſand Acres of Land in Pennſylvania; and of Five Thouſand Acres thereof in the Manour of Highlands, Five Thouſand Acres in the Manour of Gilberts, in the County of Philadelphia, Five Thouſand Acres in the Manour of Rocklands (Seven Hundred Acres whereof were to be ſet out upon the River Delaware, and the reſt to be one Lot out of every Townſhip) and the Remainder of the ſaid Sixty Thouſand Acres to be ſet out of ſuch other Parts as the ſaid Grantees, their Heirs or Aſſigns ſhould deſire (except ſuch as were already taken up) and alſo of all Lots, Mines, Minerals, Royalties, Commons and Appurtenances (royal Mines only excepted) with a proportionable Part of all Liberty Lots laid out, but not taken up, at and under the yearly Rent of two Beaver Skins.

And alſo, that by Indenture, dated the ſame 12th of Auguſt, between the ſaid Grantees of the one Part, and William Beach and others, of the other Part, the ſaid Grantees agreed to ſtand ſeized upon Truſt, to execute ſuch Deeds as ſhould be approved of by the Grand Committee of the Proprietors; and that the ſaid Grand Committee, or Grantees, by their Order, might depute any Perſon in the ſaid Province to contract for and execute Conveyances of the Premiſes, and that the nett Profits of the Premiſes ſhould be divided into Two Hundred and Twenty Shares, and be managed by a Grand Committee, to be annually choſen, as therein mentioned; and that the Proprietors ſhould be called, The Proprietors of the Pennſylvania Land Company in London; with Directions how the ſaid Two Hundred and Twenty Shares ſhould be transferred or deſcend, in caſe of Death.

And alſo, that in the Year 1720, the Proprietors of the ſaid Two Hundred and Twenty Shares, diſpoſed thereof to a new Sett of Proprietors, who divided the ſame into Eight Thouſand Eight Hundred Shares, and Receipts for many of them were ſigned and given out by Thomas Story the then Treaſurer.

And alſo a Conveyance in Fee, dated the 23d and 24th of December 1720, from the ſaid Thomas Story to John Haddon and Benjamin Kirton, of a Tract of Land between the two navigable Creeks in the County of Kent, in Pennſylvania, containing Eleven Thouſand Acres; another Tract, lying at Pequa Creek, in the County of Cheſter, in Pennſylvania, containing One Thouſand Nine Hundred and Forty Acres; another Tract in Goſhen, in the ſame County, containing Two Hundred and Seventy-four Acres; another Tract on Schuylkill, in the ſaid County of Philadelphia, containing Three Hundred and Thirty-four Acres; one Oil, and one Corn or Griſt Mill, and the Land thereto belonging, containing ſix Acres; another Tract of Land in the ſaid County of Bucks, containing One Hundred and Seventy Acres; one Bank Lot and Wharff, containing One Hundred and Twelve Feet, in the ſettled Part of the City, with a ſmall Tenement thereon, and Three Hundred Acres of rich Swamp Land near Philadelphia (whereof about Seventy Acres were imbanked and incloſed) and Seven Thouſand Two Hundred Acres of Land in Pennſylvania, not then taken up; in Truſt for the ſaid Company.

And alſo a Conveyance in Fee, dated the 26th and 27th of September 1723, from Peter Sonmans to the ſaid Haddon, Samuel Bonham, Samuel Turner, and John Midford, of Two Ninetieth Parts of Ninety equal Hundredth Parts of a Tract of Land on the Weſtern Diviſion of New-Jerſey, called Arent Sonman's Manour, in the County of Burlington, containing Twenty Thouſand Acres, with the Allowance for Roads; and all other Tracts belonging to the ſaid Proprietaries in Weſt New-Jerſey, not then taken up; and all Mines, Minerals, Royalties, and Appurtenances thereto belonging (except and reſerved to the ſaid Sonmans, his Heirs and Aſſigns, one full Moiety of the ſaid two equal Ninetieth Parts, to be taken out and diſtinguiſhed from the remaining Part) in one entire Tract, in Truſt for the ſaid Company.

And alſo, the ſeveral Indentures, Conveyances and Deaths, whereby ſuch Parts of the Premiſes, as remain unſold, are become veſted in Thomas Hyam, Thomas Reynolds, and Thomas How, in Fee, in Truſt as aforeſaid.

And alſo that it appears, that about Nineteen Thouſand One Hundred and Ninety-four Acres of the Premiſes have been ſold, and that about Seventy-two Thouſand Three Hundred and Thirty now remain unſold, beſides ſome Houſes, Mills and Tenements.

And alſo, that Three Thouſand Six Hundred and Eighty-one of the ſaid Eight Thouſand Eight Hundred Shares have been transferred to John Bell, who, by his Deed-poll, dated the 12th of November 1753, acknowledged the ſame to be in Truſt for the ſaid Company; and, by Deed-poll dated the 21ſt of September 1759, aſſigned the ſame to the ſaid Hyam, Reynolds, and How, in Truſt as aforeſaid.

And alſo, that Two Hundred and Thirty-three Shares ſtand in the Books of the ſaid Partnerſhip, in the Names of ſome of the original Proprietors, and Three Thouſand Seven Hundred and Twenty-eight Shares, in the Names of ſeveral Perſons ſpecified in the firſt Schedule,

And that, in Purſuance of Advertiſements, Claims have been made, under ſeveral Receipts, for Six Hundred and Fifty Shares, and Twenty-ſix Shares; and the Names of the Perſons who produced ſuch Receipts, or claimed ſuch Shares, are mentioned in the ſecond Schedule.

And alſo, that it is unknown who are entitled to the Remainder of the ſaid Eight Thouſand Eight Hundred Shares; and that ſeveral of the Perſons, named in the ſaid Schedules, are dead; and ſome of the ſaid Shares have been aſſigned; and that the Premiſes unſold are greatly increaſed in Value; and, if ſold, would raiſe a conſiderable Sum to be divided amongſt the Perſons intereſted, and the parcelling out thereof may tend to populate the ſaid Colonies.

And alſo, that Contracts have been made with Francis Rawle, the ſaid Company's Agent in Pennſylvania, for Sale of ſome of the Premiſes; and that it will be for the Benefit of all Perſons intereſted, that what remains ſhould with all convenient Speed be ſold; but Perſons decline treating, unleſs all the Perſons intereſted join in the Sale, or unleſs the ſaid Lands, by Authority of Parliament, be veſted in Truſtees to be ſold.

Therefore, it is ENACTED, that all the Premiſes (except what have been ſold and conveyed by the Truſtees) be veſted in John Fothergill, Doctor in Phyſic, Daniel Zachary, Thomas How, Devereux Bowley, Luke Hinde, Richard How, Jacob Hagen, Silvanus Grove, and William Heron, their Heirs and Aſſigns, diſcharged of the Uſes, Truſts and Powers, the ſame are now ſubject to by the ſaid Indentures, and of all Right of the Perſons intereſted in the Partnerſhip on Eight Thouſand Eight Hundred Shares, but upon Truſt; with all convenient Speed to cauſe an Office Copy of this Act to be inrolled in the Office of the Maſter of the Rolls in Philadelphia, and a full Abſtract thereof, inſerted ſeven Times at leaſt in the Philadelphia Gazette, with Notice that the Premiſes (not contracted for with the ſaid Rawle) are to be ſold by public Auction, at ſuch Times and Places in Philadelphia, as ſhall be ſpecified in ſuch Gazettes (not leſs than ſix Months from the firſt publiſhing ſuch Notice) in Parcels, to the Perſons who will offer moſt; and ſhall cauſe likewiſe to be publiſhed in the London Gazette, and other daily Papers in England, Advertiſements that the Premiſes are to be ſold by public Auction, in Parcels, to the beſt Bidder, with other Particulars as ſhall be requiſite; and on Receipt in England of the Pennſylvania Gazette (in which ſuch Abſtract and Advertiſements ſhall be inſerted, or one of them, with an Affidavit made before ſome Judge or Magiſtrate at Philadelphia, of the ſame being the Gazette publiſhed at Philadelphia) to cauſe to be publiſhed in the London Gazette, and other News Papers in England, that the Premiſes are to be ſold by public Auction, at the Times and Place mentioned in the Pennſylvania Gazette.

And the Premiſes ſhall be put up to be ſold accordingly, and ſo from Time to Time, till ſold.

And, upon Truſt, to convey all Parcels, by the ſaid Rawle agreed to be ſold, to the Purchaſers, their Heirs and Aſſigns, on Payment of the Purchaſe Money, and on Payment of the Money agreed for any Part, by the Act, veſted in the Truſtees, ſuch Premiſes ſhall, at the Coſt of the Purchaſers, be conveyed to them, their Heirs and Aſſigns.

The Truſtees are empowered to depute any Perſon or Perſons, in Pennſylvania, to ſell and convey, and may revoke ſuch Deputations, and execute new ones; and what ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall lawfully do and execute, under ſuch Deputation (until the Revocation thereof ſhall be inrolled in the ſaid Office of the Maſter of the Rolls) ſhall be valid.

The Truſtees ſhall take Care, that ſufficient Security be given by every ſuch Perſon, for his due Behaviour, and remitting to England, with all convenient Speed, all Money received under ſuch Deputation; and no Perſon ſhall be capable to act under it, until he ſhall have given ſuch Security, and an Inrollment thereof be made in the ſaid Office of the Maſter of the Rolls.

The Receipt of the Truſtees, or of any Perſon deputed as aforeſaid, for any Purchaſe Money, in reſpect of Premiſes agreed to be ſold by the ſaid Rawle, or which ſhall be ſold under this Act, ſhall be a ſufficient Diſcharge, and the Purchaſers ſhall not be anſwerable for any Loſs, Miſapplication, or Nonapplication of the Purchaſe Money.

The Truſtees, after Receipt of any Money, ſhall with all convenient Speed pay the ſame into the Bank of England, or place it out in the public Funds at Intereſt, and apply the Dividends as the principal Money is directed to be applied.

None of the Truſtees, or their Deputies, nor any Perſon in Truſt for any of them, ſhall purchaſe under this Act; and every ſuch Purchaſe (if any) ſhall be void.

John Seare, Thomas Nugent, and James Eyre, Eſqrs; and John Paterſon and William Hayton, Gent. are appointed Commiſſioners for examining the Claims of Shares; and they are empowered, by Examination of Parties, or Teſtimony of Witneſſes upon Oath or Affirmation, or by Inſpection of Books, Deeds, Writings or Accompts of the Partnerſhip, or otherwiſe, to determine the ſame in a ſummary Way; their Power to continue for three Years, from the 24th of June 1760.

The Commiſſioners are to meet, after the ſaid 24th of June, in London; and at their firſt Meeting ſhall direct Advertiſements in the London Gazette, and other News Papers; and the Gazette publiſhed at Philadelphia, for all Perſons who claim any of the ſaid Shares, to make out their Right, and produce their Evidence before the Commiſſioners, at ſuch Times and Place in London, as in ſuch Gazette ſhall be ſpecified, before the 1ſt of January 1763, or that they will be precluded from any Dividend.

The Commiſſioners may adjourn from Time to Time, and employ Clerks and others, and provide Books, and in ſome of them enter the Claims made, and Evidence produced before them, and the Names and Places of Abode of the Perſons who ſhall make ſuch Claims, and on whoſe Behalf; and ſhall mark all written Evidence allowed by them; and on or before the 1ſt of March 1763, aſcertain how many Shares ſhall be allowed, and to whom, and ſhall caſt up the Amount thereof; and on or before the 24th of June 1763, ſhall, at the Expence of the Partnerſhip, cauſe a Copy of ſuch Books, ſigned by them, to be filed with the Clerk of the Reports in Chancery, who is required to file the ſame, and to take ſuch Fees as are allowed for copying and filing Reports.

Claims for Infants, may be made by their Fathers, Guardians or others; for Feme Coverts, by their Huſbands; and for Lunatics or Idiots, by their Committees.

Articles of Agreement between the Engliſh and Dutch.

Engliſh Demand.

Art. I. THE Director and Council of Chincura ſhall give full Satisfaction to the Preſident and Council of Fort-William, for the Inſult offered to the Britiſh Flag by the Commanders of the Dutch Ships, and for the Detention of many of our Veſſels, which were ſeized and ſtopped in the River, contrary to the Treaties which ſubſiſt between the two Nations, and for the other Acts of Hoſtility committed by the ſaid Ships.

Dutch Anſwer. The Director and Council of Chincura declare, that as they have always been poſſeſſed with Sentiments of Peace, the Troubles which have happened to diſturb the good Underſtanding between the two Nations, have only ſerved to give them a ſenſible Pain, and every Thing which has paſſed below, with Reſpect to the Engliſh Flag, and the Inſults committed, is without their Order, and what they regret, and perhaps done by the People of the Ships, from a Miſunderſtanding of their Orders, with which they hope the Governor and Council will be fully ſatisfied.

Engliſh Demand II. The Director and Council of Chincura ſhall make good, both to the Company and Individuals, all Damages done by the Commanders of their Ships, whether by their Order or not; and ſhall immediately reſtore all the Veſſels, Stores and Effects, which may ſtill be in their Poſſeſſion.

Dutch Anſwer. As the Dutch Veſſels have alſo been much damaged, the real Loſs will be willingly made good; but it is to be hoped the Governor and Council reflect equitably on this Article; and if they inſiſt upon it, we ſhall endeavour to ſatisfy them.

Dutch Demand I. That the Engliſh ſhall effect the Nabob's Return, or, at leaſt, to prevail on him to remain quiet in his Camp, without doing us any Injury; and that the Articles of our Agreement be accepted, approved and confirmed by the Nabob's Principal, as far as they concern him, as well for the preſent as for the future.

Engliſh Anſwer. We have already mude uſe of all our Intereſt with the Nabob, and ſhall continue to engage him to withdraw his Arms, the Moment the Dutch Goverment has fulfilled his Orders. The Articles agreed on between the Engliſh and Dutch cannot be included in the Treaty which the Government of Hughley may conclude with the Nabob's Principal.

Dutch Demand II. That what has paſſed, during the Troubles which have now ceaſed, ſhall be mutually forgot; and an Aſſurance given of a perfect Friendſhip, Fidelity and Correſpondence, being kept up between the two Nations, by their reſpective Chiefs, without permitting any Hoſtility on one Side or the other, on any Pretence whatſoever. That each ſhall do his utmoſt to preſerve this Intelligence, and to contribute, as far as poſſible, to the Good of both, without aſſiſting, directly or indirectly, thoſe who would prejudice either.

Engliſh Anſwer. Approved, as far as is conſiſtent with the Alliance between the Nabob and us, and while Friendſhip ſubſiſts between our Sovereigns in Europe.

Dutch Demand III. As we have neither acted by Declaration of War, nor by Commiſſion, our Troops and Mariners cannot be conſidered as Priſoners of War, ſubject to a Capitulation; but merely as temporary Captives, and therefore ought to be ſet at Liberty, with all military Honours.

Engliſh Anſwer. We do not look upon the Dutch Officers and Troops as our Priſoners, but as thoſe of the Nabob; and are therefore ready to releaſe them, as ſoon as they have concluded their Treaty with him, except ſuch as are willing to enter our Service, or who demand the Protection of the Engliſh Flag.

Dutch Demand IV. That they ſhall leave us in the free Poſſeſſion of our Settlements, Commerce, Rights and Privileges.

Engliſh Anſwer. We have never interrupted the Dutch in their juſt Rights and Privileges, nor ever purpoſe doing it.

Dutch Demand V. That all the People, Poſſeſſions, Settlements, Lands, Houſes, Ships and Veſſels, belonging both to the Company and Individuals, and every Thing belonging thereto, ſhall be declared free, and reſtored, in Preſence of the Deputies appointed by both Parties, in their proper Condition.

Engliſh Anſwer. All the Ships and Veſſels in our Poſſeſſion ſhall be reſtored as ſoon as our Demands are complied with, or on an Aſſurance thereof given by the Director and Council of Hughley.

Dutch Demand VI. Theſe Treaties to be exchanged with the Approbation of the Directors of both Companies, as ſoon as poſſible.

Engliſh Anſwer. Granted.

Dutch Demand VII. Finally, the two Parties ſhall be reciprocal Guarantees for the Execution of the preceding Articles.

Engliſh Anſwer. We do not ſee any Neceſſity for this Article.

Articles agreed upon by the Dutch Company with the Nabob, and ratified under the Hands and Seals of the Dutch Director and Council, and the Seal of the Company.

I. We will immediately ſend away the Europeans, Buccaſſes and Tilangas, that have been brought hither in our Ships, and we will diſmiſs the Europeans, Seapoys, and Burgundaſſes, lately entertained.

II. We will bring no more armed Forces into the Country of Bengal; nor ever make War in the Country, nor erect any Fortifications, nor make any military Preparations.

III. We will entertain no more than 125 European Soldiers in all our Factories eſtabliſhed within the three Provinces.

IV. We will carry on our Trade with Peace and Quietneſs; and in caſe (which God forbid) our Buſineſs ſhould meet with any Obſtructions, Diſputes, or Oppreſſions, we will apply for Redreſs to the Nazem of the Provinces."

The Subſtance of the Memorial preſented by General Yorke to the States-General, concerning the Diſputes in the Eaſt-Indies, is as follows.

"That their High Mightineſſes were already informed by the public News Papers, of an Event as ſurpriſing as irregular, in Conſequence of the Conduct which the Dutch have held for ſome Time in the Eaſt-Indies, and lately in the River of Bengal, notwithſtanding the Regard which the Britiſh Subjects had on every Occaſion ſhewn for them: That their High Mightineſſes muſt be greatly aſtoniſhed to hear by his Memorial of that extraordinary and unexpected Event, but that they would be much more ſo on reading the Piece annexed to it, containing a minute Account, drawn up with the ſtricteſt Regard to Truth, of the Irregularity of the Behaviour of the Dutch, at a Time when they enjoyed all the Sweets of Peace, and all the Advantages of an unmoleſted Trade; at a Time, in ſhort, when His Majeſty, from His great Regard for their High Mightineſſes, carefully avoided giving them the leaſt Umbrage.

"That His Britannick Majeſty was greatly ſtruck to hear of the monſtruous Proceedings of the Dutch in the Eaſt-Indies, and their miſchievous Deſigns to deſtroy the Settlements of His Subjects there, which they would certainly have effected, had not His Majeſty's victorious Arms brought them to Reaſon, though only three of His Ships engaged ſeven Dutch Ships, and obliged them to conclude an Accommodation: That His Majeſty would willingly believe that their High Mightineſſes gave no Orders for coming to ſuch Extremities, and that the Directors of the India Company had no Hand therein: That, nevertheleſs, he (Mr. Yorke) was ordered to demand, in the Name of the King his Maſter, ſignal Satisfaction: and that all who ſhould be found to have had any Share in this Offence, which manifeſtly tended to the Deſtruction of the Britiſh Settlements in that Country, ſhould be exemplarily punniſhed; and that their High Mightineſſes ſhould moreover give Orders, that the Stipulations agreed on, the Day after the Action, between the Directors of the reſpective Companies, in Conſideration of which the Dutch had their Ships reſtored, after they had acknowledged their Fault, and that they were the Aggreſſors, ſhould be ſtrictly complied with."

The Anſwer of the States-General to Mr. Yorke's Memorial concerning the Difference between the Engliſh and Dutch in India, hath been miſrepreſented. It imported, "That nothing had as yet come to the Knowledge of their High Mightineſſes, of what their Subjects were charged with; that they requeſted His Britannic Majeſty to ſuſpend his Judgment till he ſhould be exactly informed of the Grounds of thoſe Diſputes; and that His Majeſty ſhould have Reaſon to be ſatisfied with the exemplary Puniſhment of all who ſhould be found to be concerned in that Affair."

Hamburgh, October 31. The King of Pruſſia paſſed the Elbe the 25th, at Coſwig, between Deſſau and Wittenberg, and joined the Corps of Prince Eugene of Wirtemberg, and General Hulſen; ſo that his Army now amounts to 80,000 Men. That of M. Daun extends from Eulenburg and Torgau, to the Neighbourhood of Duben. The Army of the Empire, whoſe Head-quarters are at Leipſick, and the Corps of the Duke of Wirtemberg encamped at Lindenau, near that City, may be ſaid to form the Left Wing of the Auſtrians. The Poſition of the King of Pruſſia is ſo near that of M. Daun, that a bloody Action is hourly expected. [It has happened.]

Several Letters from good Hands adviſe, that in Obedience to her Imperial Majeſty's poſitive Commands, Count Daun is in full March to fight the King of Pruſſia; and on the other Hand, we are informed, that that Monarch has actually received a Train of heavy Artillery from Magdeburgh, and a Reinforcement of 8000 Men. The Ruſſians threaten to beſiege Cuſtrin. We have this Moment Advice, that the Pruſſians have abandoned not only Mecklenburgh, but Pomerania, in order, by forced Marches, to join the Royal Army.

Magdeburgh, November 1. We have received certain Advice from Saxony, that the King of Pruſſia paſſed the Elbe the 26th with his Army; and after being joined the next Day by the Troops commanded by Prince Eugene of Wirtemberg, and General Hulſen, advanced as far as Kemberg. The 29th he puſhed as far as Duben. Captain de Gotze, who commanded a Party of the Huſſars which formed the advanced Guard, defeated a Battalion of Pandours, in his Way, and took ſeveral Priſoners.

Altena, Novmber 4. They write from Sileſia, that Gen. Goltze is retired from Glogau, and is gone with the Troops under his Command, further into the Country towards Breſlau, in order to oppoſe the Auſtrians commanded by Generals Laudohn and Jahnus.

Francfort, October 27. It is now evident that Marſhal Broglio intends to take up his Winter-quarters in the Landgraviate of Heſſe, and to fix himſelf at Caſſel. The Scheme of raiſing Subſiſtence by Plunder, ſeems to be the new Method of forming the French Magazines; with which View they, in Conjunction with their Allies, are penetrating into the Countries of Halberſtadt, Anhalt and Brunſwick.

Arnheim, November 5. A Body of 1200 French, Part Infantry, the Reſt Light Cavalry, attempted on the 27th ult. to ſurprize the Hanoverians near their Camp near Schermbeck: But the Hereditary Prince having Intelligence of their Deſign, immediately called in his advanced Poſts, abandoned his firſt Tents, and poſted his Infantry behind the others; he moreover ordered ſome Regiments of Horſe and Huſſars to wind about and fall upon the Back of the French, at the Time that, in the Poſition that the Hanoverians were decamped, they were pillaging the Tents, and whilſt the Infantry ſallied from their Ambuſcade, and gave them a Volley from all their Artillery. This Stratagem ſo perfectly ſucceeded, that of the 1200 French who marched from Weſel, ſcarcely 200 Men eſcaped.

Leipſick (a conſiderable trading Town in Upper Saxony) Oct. 25. M. Verelſt, Envoy Extraordinary from the States-General to the Court of Berlin, who was in that City at the Time of its being taken, at whoſe Interceſſion it was in a great Meaſure preſerved, has received the following Letter of Thanks from his Pruſſian Majeſty.

"Monſieur de Verelſt,

"Though I have been informed of your kind Offices during the Diſaſter which lately happened to my good City of Berlin, only by vague and uncertain Reports, yet as theſe acquaint me that you have been the Means of preſerving the Inhabitants from the Hardſhips and Cruelties the Enemy intended to inflict upon them, I cannot help returning you my Thanks immediately, and letting you know how ſenſible I am of the Humanity you diſcovered on this Occaſion. I aſſure you, it ſhall ever be fixed in my Memory, and that upon all Occaſions which may offer, I ſhall make it my Buſineſs to ſhew the high Senſe I have of the Obligation. I pray God, Monſieur de Verelſt, to take you under his Holy Protection.

From my Head-Quarters at Jeſſen, Oct. 22, 1760.

FREDERICK."

Hamburgh (a large Imperial City, in Lower Saxony) Oct. 31. Some Advices ſay, that the Count de Luſace is marching with 10,000 Saxons, and 4000 French Cavalry, towards Saxony.

Cologne (a very large, rich and famous City in the Lower Rhine) Nov. 4. They write from Rome, of the 22d ult. that the late Queen of Spain has 500,000 Scudi in the Bank of the Hill Mercery, whence 10,000 Scudi are remitted Monthly, for the Uſe of her Royal Father the King of Poland.

The French Governor of Caſſel has ordered Notice to be given to the Inhabitants of the New Town, that they muſt quit their Houſes, and leave them to the French Troops for their Winter Quarters.

LONDON.

Nov. 15. A Spaniſh Veſſel is arrived at Portſmouth from Cadiz, by which, it is ſaid, there is an Account, that 700 of the Garriſon of Gibraltar had ſigned an Inſtrument to make themſelves Maſters of the Place; that they had already nailed up 30 Pieces of the Cannon; that they were to proceed to the murdering of the Governor, and all the Inhabitants that oppoſed them, ſack the Place, throw open the Gates, and go over to the Spaniards; that this Affair was diſcovered to the Governor by a common Soldier, who ſigned the Inſtrument with Reluctance, and by Force; that the Day before this Ship ſailed, 41 of the Mutineers were hanged; and that the Day ſhe ſailed, 46 more were hanged; ſo we hope by this Time the whole is quelled.

By an Account lately publiſhed, of the Number of French and Engliſh Men of War taken, deſtroyed, or caſually loſt, from the Year 1755 to 1760, to the preſent Time incluſive, it appears thus: Total Loſs of the French is 104 Ships, carrying 4222 Guns: Total Loſs of the Engliſh is 24 Ships, carrying 860 Guns.

BOSTON, JANUARY 19.

Since our laſt we have had an extreme cold Seaſon, whereby our Harbour has been for two or three Days almoſt filled with Ice.---We have within this Time had ſeveral Alarms by the Cry of Fire, which were ſoon extinguiſhed, without any extraordinary Damage occurring, until Tueſday Evening laſt, when at about Half an Hour after Nine o' Clock a violent Fire broke out in one of the Shops oppoſite the North Side of Faneuil-Hall-Market, on Dock-Square, which entirely conſumed all the Row of wooden Buildings from the Store occupied by the Honourable Thomas Hubbard, Eſq; to the Swing Bridge. Theſe Buildings belonged to the Town, and were leaſed to a Number of Tradeſmen, ſome of whom had their whole Stock therein, moſt of which was either conſumed or loſt. There were ſeveral ſmall Schooners in the Dock, but they received little Damage; nor did the Fire proceed to the North Side of the Dock; on the contrary, it communicated itſelf to that ſtately Edifice Faneuil-Hall-Market, the whole of which was ſoon entirely conſumed, excepting the Brick Walls, which are left ſtanding: The Fire then proceeded to a Number of Shops, improved by ſome Tradeſmen, on the South Side of the Market, and conſumed them alſo: The Wind riſing about this Time, carried the Flakes of Fire over the Houſes towards King-ſtreet, and the Ware-houſes and Stores on the Town-Dock, and Long-Wharff, wherein were the greateſt Quantities of the richeſt Merchandize in the Town. The Inhabitants having the Fire of laſt Spring recent in their Minds, they were apprehenſive of a further Deſtruction, eſpecially as the Tide was down, the Dock filled with Ice, and ſome of the Pumps in the Neighbourhood failing; many People removed their Goods, ſome of which received Damage thereby: The Severity of the Weather was ſuch, that many Perſons could ſcarce ſtand it; and the Water which iſſued from the Engines congealed into Particles of Ice before it fell.-----Altho' the Flames and Flakes of Fire fell on many Houſes and Stores, yet no Dwelling-houſe was conſumed; one or two near the Market were conſiderably damaged.-----Never were Slates on Houſes diſcovered to be of ſo much Advantage as at that Time; for when great Flakes of Fire fell thereon, they immediately run off, without doing any Miſchief.

The Loſs of Faneuil-Hall-Market muſt be great to this Town, as it was a noble Building, eſteemed one of the beſt Pieces of Workmanſhip here, and an Ornament to the Town: It was built near 20 Years ago, at the ſole Expence of the late generous Peter Faneuil, Eſq; the capacious Hall, which bore the Founder's Name, would contain above 1000 of the Inhabitants at a Meeting.---There were convenient Apartments for the Officers of the Town to tranſact their reſpective Buſineſſes therein; beſides two Offices at the Eaſt End of the lower Floor, one of which was improved as a Naval Office, and the other a Notary Publick's: The other Part was very commodious for a Market.-----The Records, Papers, &c. with ſuch other Things as could be removed, were moſtly ſaved.

There are near 20 Tradeſmen deprived of Shops by this Fire, which muſt make it extremely difficult in this Winter Seaſon; eſpecially when it is conſidered, that many of thoſe who loſt their Shops in March laſt, are not yet ſupplied with proper Places to carry on their reſpective Buſineſſes.

The frequent Fires in this Town in Winter, are occaſioned oftentimes by the great Quantities of Charcoal which are burnt in Pots; wherefore it cannot be taken amiſs to remind Perſons to ſee that their Pots of Fire are well extinguiſhed before they leave them; and that they have their Chimnies ſwept; and particularly to be careful of Aſhes, which are generally carried into Cellars.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Levi Stutſon, of the Snow Britannia, bound from Newcaſtle to this Place, dated Ocergil, near Caithneſs, October 21, 1760.

"This is to inform you of my Diſaſter laſt Night, being Shipwrecked near Caithneſs, in the North of Scotland, and the Veſſel and Cargoe entirely loſt. Our People got all ſafe on Shore in a ſmall Boat, except the Mate, one Man and myſelf, who tarried for the Boat's coming off again; but the Sea was ſo high, that the Boat could not come off to take us in: We were obliged to ſtay on board; the Veſſel ſoon went to Pieces, and myſelf, the Mate and the other Man, were waſhed about in the Wreck five Hours, and at laſt got on Shore on the Boltſprit, but deſtitute of Cloaths, having thrown the heavieſt off, in order to ſwim."

NEW-YORK, JANUARY 29.

Perth-Amboy, Jan. 26. This Day His Majeſty King GEORGE the Third, was proclaimed in this City. In the Morning the Militia of the County of Middleſex, Horſe and Foot, came into Town; and about Twelve of the Clock his Excellency the Governor, attended by the Gentlemen of the Council, repaired to the Court-Houſe, preceded by the Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Middleſex, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council-Men of this City, with their proper Officers, where His Moſt Royal and Sacred Majeſty was proclaimed, in the Preſence of the Governor and Council, amidſt the joyful Acclamations of a numerous Audience of this and the neighbouring Counties. The Troop of Horſe, and Detachments from the Regiments of Militia of this County, lined both Sides of the Way to the Court-Houſe; in the Evening there were Illuminations, which concluded with all the Demonſtrations of Joy, uſual upon ſuch Occaſions.

It ſeems the Diſpatches and Warrants for proclaiming our gracious Sovereign King George the Third, arrived at New-York both by His Majeſty's Ship Fowey, Captain Tonyn, and an Expreſs from Boſton, on Friday Evening the 16th Inſtant, and an Expreſs was the next Day ſent from New-York, with thoſe for this Government, Pennſylvania, &c. but either by the Negligence, Ignorance, or Deſign of the Perſon ſent with them, thoſe for this Government were carried quite to Philadelphia, and then returned here by the common Poſt:---Which occaſioned us to be thus late in this Affair:---However, we flatter ourſelves that in Proportion to our Number, very few Solemnities of the Kind have been carried on with more Loyalty, Unanimity, and upright Conduct, than this of the ſmall Province of New-Jerſey.

It is thought the following Account is not quite unworthy of Notice, viz. A few Days before Chriſtmas laſt, a very valuable Negroe, named Cæſar, belonging to the Widow Furman, at Colt's Neck, in Monmouth County, New-Jerſey, was found dead, at ſome Diſtance from Home, and being conjectured to have died by Accident, was buried; but ſoon after, a Neighbour informing, that the Night before he had heard great Cries of Murder near the Place where the Negroe was found; and that he would have gone to the Aſſiſtance of the Diſtreſſed, but that a very large Mill-Pond lay in the Way, which he could not croſs.-----The Negroe was taken up again, and both his Legs found broke, and his Neck diſlocated: Whereupon further Search was made, and at the Place of the Out-Cry was found many Marks of Cæſar's ſtruggling with his Adverſaries, and ſeveral plain Tokens of his having been hang'd on a low Limb of a Tree.---It ſeems Cæſar had made his Addreſſes ſome Time to a neighbouring Wench, who had received him kindly, and they were to have been married at Chriſtmas; but another Fellow who alſo addreſſed the Wench, not being received well, and jealous of Cæſar, and having ſeveral Negroe Friends, it is thought poor Cæſar was Way-laid, and murdered in that Manner; and this Suſpicion is corroborated, by a Perſon's having heard an old Wench tell Cæſar a few Days before, that if he continued to viſit that young Wench, he would not live to ſee Chriſtmas.-----Several Negroes have ſince been taken up on the Account, and 'tis thought the Truth will be diſcovered: So that poor Cæſar's Antagoniſt is likely to be found in a worſe State than the Dog in the Manger.

Near the ſame Place as the above, a few Days ago, three or four Men dug out of the Side of a Hill, from whence a fine Spring iſſued, Fifty-two large Rattle-Snakes, and Nineteen Black Snakes, all twined together in one Bunch or Knot: The cold Weather prevented their making any Reſiſtance, though the Rattle-Snakes were ſo lively as to be able to rattle pretty briſkly:---They cut the Heads of the Rattle-Snakes off, and then ſkin'd them:---The Digging was purpoſely after them, as a great Number had been ſeen near the Spring the Summer before.

As on the Death of His late Majeſty King GEORGE the Second, the General Aſſembly of this Colony became diſſolved, we hear Writs are iſſued for a new Election, returnable on Tueſday the 3d of March next.

SCHEME

Of a LOTTERY for raising 3000 Pieces of Eight, for the Use of the COLLEGE, ACADEMY, and CHARITABLE SCHOOLS of PHILADELPHIA.

THIS extensive Seminary of Learning, by the Generosity of Individuals, having now been carried on for Ten Years, to the Credit and Emolument of the Province, every Person in it has had sufficient Opportunity to satisfy himself of its Usefulness. Great Sums of Money have been expended in fitting up the several Schools, repairing the public Hall, and purchasing a Philosophical Apparatus; sufficient Masters have also been provided, in the several Branches of Literature; two Charity-Schools, containing Eighty Boys, and Forty Girls, have been constantly maintained, and in them many poor Children, that would otherwise have been left destitute, have been rendered useful to the Community, and are now making a Figure in it; from all which an Expence of near Eight Hundred Pounds per Annum arises to the Trustees, above the Income of the Schools, the Advantage of which accrues entirely to the Public, in the Ease and Cheapness of Education.

In order, therefore, to compleat a Capital for the Defraying of this annual Expence, and to erect such additional Buildings as the Growth and present Circumstances of the Institution render absolutely necessary, the Trustees have been obliged to have Recourse to small Lotteries. And 'tis hoped the following Scheme will meet with all due Encouragement from the Friends of Learning and the Public.

AS a new Church, called PAUL's-CHURCH, has been thought necessary, for the Worship of ALMIGHTY GOD, to be erected in this City, by many well disposed Christians; who have, according to their Abilities, chearfully subscribed, and many of them paid considerable Sums of Money, towards carrying on this pious Work. In Consequence whereof, a very large and commodious Building hath been begun, and carried on to the full Height of the Brick Work: But it being judged that the Expence of completing and finishing this Church, will greatly exceed the Sums subscribed; therefore it is thought expedient to set up a LOTTERY, for the raising 3000 Pieces of Eight, which it is hoped will compleatly finish the said Church; and not doubted but all well Wishers to the true Worship of GOD, will favour and encourage this Undertaking.

The SCHEME for this Purpose is as follows.

The Drawing to begin punctually on the first Day of April next, or sooner, if sooner full. The Prizes to be published in this Gazette, and the Pennsylvania Journal, and the Prize Money to be paid as soon as the Drawing shall be finished, the aforesaid Deduction to be first made. Prize Money not demanded in six Months after the Publication of the Prizes, to be deemed as generously given to the Use of the said Church, and to be applied accordingly. The following Gentlemen are appointed Managers, viz. Walter Goodman, Thomas Campbell, John Ord, Plunket Fleeson, Ephraim Bonham, Andrew Bankson, Andrew Doz, Thomas Charlton, James Stevenson, John Young, James Claypoole, and Robert Towers; who are to give Bond, and be upon Oath, that they will truly execute the Trust in them reposed. Francfort, (a City of Germany) October 25.

M. DE MOSER, Minister from Hesse Darmstadt, has, in the following Memorial, addressed to the States of the Circle of the Upper Rhine, set forth the miserable State of the Dutchy of Waldeck, which is every Day increasing.

"The undersigned has formerly, in two Memorials, set forth the distressed State of the Country of Waldeck, but finding their Miseries to encrease, he has again received Orders to represent to this Assembly, that, in the last Expedition from Marburgh, it suffered greatly by the March of the Troops under the Hereditary Prince of Brunswick, and those of Gen. Stanville; the Light Troops have entirely drained that Country. Long before that Expedition, the French were in their Bailiages of Wildungen and Waldeck, and the Allies in that of Arolsen; but the French having been augmented to 16,000 Men, the miserable Inhabitants were so exhausted, that, to prevent their utter Ruin, they were obliged to seek, at a Distance, Grain to sow their Lands at an exorbitant Price, with Money borrowed at excessive Interest, which the French have taken from them; neither have they left them any Forage. By this Means the Inhabitants are in a miserable Situation, not only being ruined themselves, but have involved others with them.

"In these distressed Circumstances, the Inhabitants, their Children, and Cattle, are threatened with Famine, as they can see no Probability of supporting their wretched Lives.---Their Misery is such, that no Language can find Expressions to properly represent it; a View of which cannot but touch the Heart of the most insensible.

"The undersigned supplicates the Assembly to take the above Case into Consideration, and to send a Commission to the Spot, which will convince them how absolutely impossible it is for that wretched Country to contribute any Thing either to the Empire or to the Circles, &c. Signed

DE MOSER."

Petersburgh, Oct. 14. Our Fleet, commanded by Admiral Mischakof, arrived last Tuesday in the Road of Cronstadt, in good Order. The long dark Nights, and contrary Winds, obliged them to return, not their Enemies. The Report that four of our Vessels were lost, may be contradicted by any of the Ship-masters at Cronstadt, who can assure their Friends of the contrary.

St. James's, November 12.

THIS Day the most Reverend Father in God the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, and the Clergy of the Cities of London and Westminster, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Chamberlain of the Household, waited in a Body on His Majesty, with the following humble Address.

To the KING's most Excellent MAJESTY,

The humble Address of the Bishop of London, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, and the Clergy of the Cities of London and Westminster.

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN,

"WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop of London, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, and the Clergy of the Cities of London and Westminster, do humbly beg Leave to approach Your Royal Person, to condole with You upon the Death of our late Most Gracious Sovereign, and to congratulate Your Majesty upon Your happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms.

"Your faithful Clergy of the Diocese of London, ever studious of testifying their Affection and Loyalty, desire, upon this Occasion to give Your Majesty the strongest Assurances of their inviolable Attachment to Your Person and Government, and of their firm Resolution at all Times to inculcate the same good Principles upon those committed to their Care.

"We beg Leave to acknowledge, with all Thankfulness, Your Majesty's great Goodness towards us, in the gracious Declaration You have been pleased to make, that You will preserve and strengthen the Constitution both in Church and in State: And we desire farther to thank Your Majesty for Your late Royal Proclamation for the Encouragement of Piety and Virtue, and for the reventing and punishing of Vice, Prophaneness, and Immorality. Such an early Testimony of Your Majesty's pious Intentions, enforced by Your Royal Authority, cannot fail having the best Effect upon the Public, and especially upon the Magistracy of this great Metropolis, in encouraging them to discharge their Duty in punishing all Prophaneness and Immorality, and particularly all Abuses of the Sabbath-Day. So shall this Nation become a Praise in the Earth, and this Great and Royal City be as eminent for its Virtue, as it is for its Trade and Commerce throughout the World.

"Our Prayers are daily offered up for the Welfare and Prosperity of Your Majesty, and Your Royal House; and may God grant You a long and successful Reign over a grateful and happy People."

To which Address His MAJESTY was pleased to give the following most gracious Answer.

"I thank you for this early Testimony of your Loyalty and Zeal for My Government. The just Sense you have of My affectionate Care of the established Church, and of My Concern for the Maintenance of true Religion, and good Morals among My People, is highly acceptable to Me; and you may depend on My constant Attention to protect the Clergy in the Enjoyment of all their Rights and Privileges."

His Majesty was pleased to receive them very graciously; and they all had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

LEICESTER-HOUSE, Nov. 10. This Day the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, in the Name of the Lord Bishop of London, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, and the Clergy of the Cities of London and Westminster, waited on her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales; and being introduced by Sir William Irby, Bart. Chamberlain to her Royal Highness, the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury made her the following Compliment in their Name and Words.

To her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales.

May it please your ROYAL HIGHNESS,

"WE the Bishop of London, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, and the Clergy of the Cities of London and Westminster, most humbly desire to wait upon your Royal Highness, to condole with you upon the Death of our late most Excellent Sovereign, and to congratulate your Royal Highness upon the happy Succession of the King your Son, to the Imperial Crown of these Realms.

"After the great Loss we have sustained, it affords Matter of solid Comfort and Consolation to us, that we are under the Protection of a Prince, whose filial Piety, and other private and domestic Virtues, have shewn him to be worthy of a Crown: And our just Acknowledgments are due to your Royal Highness for that fair Prospect we have of enjoying all Spiritual and Temporal Blessings under His wise Administration, and particularly an Increase of Virtue and Piety under the Influence of His great Example.

"May God shower down his Blessings upon your Royal Highness, and all your tender Offspring: And may you long live in Health and Prosperity to enjoy the Happiness of the King, your Son's most flourishing and auspicious Reign."

To which her Royal Highness was pleased to return the following

ANSWER.

My Lord, and Gentlemen,

"I heartily thank you for this new Proof of your Attention, so flattering to me, so full of Duty and Affection to the King my Son."

They all had the Honour to kiss her Royal Highness's Hand.

Nov. 12. We can with Pleasure assure the Public, that the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Downe, who was wounded and taken at the Battle of Campen, is so well recovered of his Wounds as to be out of all Danger; and, as soon as his Lordship is well, will set out to join his Regiment.

By the last Letters from Lisbon we learn, that when the Earl of Kinnoul took his Leave, his Portuguese Majesty made him a Present of a Diamond, worth a Thousand Moidores, in a Gold Box.

Letters from Gibraltar, dated the 13th of October, say, that Admiral Saunders, in his Majesty's Ship Thunderer, was arrived there, and that the Remainder of his Fleet was daily expected.

The Rumour of a mutinous Conspiracy among some of the private Men of the Garrison at Gibraltar, is not entirely groundless; and we can assure the Public, from the best Authority, that only one private Man of the 6th Regiment had been executed on this Account when the last Letters came away.

Livy relates, in his 28th Book, that a Legion in Garrison at Regium, having cut the principal Inhabitants to Pieces, possessed that Place ten Years; for which the whole Legion, consisting of Four Thousand Men, were put to Death in the Market Place of Rome.

We are assured, that no Petitions for private Bills will be received this Parliament; which, as soon as the necessary Supplies are provided for, will be dissolved; and the new Parliament will meet in January next, for the Dispatch of the other Business.

The Report of the Death of the Earl of Bristol, Ambassador to the Court of Spain, was without Foundation.

The King hath been pleased to restore Sir Harry Erskine to his Rank in the Army (which he lost by oppposing in Parliament the Importation of the Hanoverians and Hessians, in 1756) by appointing him to be a Major-General, to take Rank after Major-General Hudson, and before Major-General Barrington. His Majesty hath also appointed him to be Colonel of the 67th Regiment of Foot, in the Room of

Nov. 15. On the Receipt of the News of the Battle of Torgau at Brussels, which might be had there on Tuesday or Wednesday last, we may suppose Mr. Maubert immediately sat down to review the Horoscope he had drawn out for the King of Prussia, who, according to his Presages, and the Plan of Operations concerted between the three great Powers and their Allies, was to have been conjured into a Circle this Campaign, unless Fortune or his Stars interposed: But as that very ingenious Writer has not Candour enough to retract his Predictions, or is not at Liberty to do it, we presume he will abide by the Horoscope, and only acknowledge that there was a small Mistake in the Calculation, which led him to set down the present Year, instead of 1761.

Extract of a Letter from Constantinople, dated Oct. 3.

"Here are about seven or eight French Men of War in the Arches, and on the Coast. Part of Admiral Saunders's Squadron has blocked them up in the Ports of Moddon, Malvatia, Cyprus, and Napoli de Romania; so that we hope the Lucretia, Falkland, is quite out of Danger."

Dr. Duncan is appointed Physician to his Majesty.

On Tuesday Night, at the Scaffolding for the King's Funeral Procession, a Man well dressed quarrelling with an Officer, he was ordered into the Custody of the Soldiers; and the Mob pulling him away, he was thrown down and trod to Death.

Last Month died in North Holland, the Right Honourable Lord George Murray, who was attainted for being in the last Rebellion, 1745. By his Death the Succession of the Title of Duke of Athole devolves to his Son, a Youth of great Merit; but the Father, had he survived the present Duke, could not have succeeded to the Title of that noble Family.

November 18. Captain Nugent, of a Company of the Royal Volunteers Light Infantry, raised at his own Expence, sets off from his Father's House, in Spring Gardens, To-day, to join his Company at Plymouth on the intended Expedition.

By the unexpected bursting of one of the new-invented Smoke Balls at Woolwich on Friday last, Col. Desaguliers had his Arm broke; Sir George Saville had the Calf of his Leg torn; Sir Robert Boothby a Finger broke; Lord Eglinton had his Sword broke by his Side; His Royal Highness the Duke of York had a very narrow Escape, for he stood close to the Shell, but the Smoke was so prevalent, that he was obliged, but a few Seconds before it burst, to retire a few Paces; one of the Splinters grazed very near the Belly of Lord Howe, which happily hurt him but slightly; his Loss would have been almost irreparable, as it is said of this Commander, that, since his first Entrance into the Navy, in the late War, when he was a Youth, he has been present at no less than 57 different Sea Engagements.

On Friday the 31st ult. a Deputation from the States General waited in Form on the Prince Stadtholder, to express their Sense of the Loss he had sustained by the sudden Death of his Grandfather the King of Great-Britain; and the next Day her Serene Highness the Princess of Nassau-Weilbourg, received Compliments of Condolance from all the Persons at the Hague of the first Distinction.

Part of a Letter from Mr. Edward Brown, dated Lisbon, September 27, 1760.

"Captain Kennedy, of his Majesty's Ship the Flamborough, being recalled Home from this Station, and having been extremely serviceable to the Trade here, by his diligent cruising, destroying of several of the Enemy's Privateers, and especially by his gallant Engagement last April, in Company with the Biddeford, with the two French Frigates, the Opale and the Malicieuse, who, notwithstanding their great Superiority of Force, were so shattered, that they were obliged to leave this Coast, and return to France, and abandon their destructive Project they had meditated against our Trade; for these Considerations,

"The principal Houses of the British Factory here have ordered a very handsome Piece of Plate, to the Value of 200l. Sterling, to be presented to him in London; on which is represented the above Engagement, with the following Inscription:

Gift of the British Merchants in Lisbon,
To ARCHIBALD KENNEDY, Esq;
Captain of His Majesty's Ship the
FLAMBOROUGH,
In Token of their Esteem and Gratitude
For his singular Vigilance and Bravery in protecting their Trade,
And annoying the Enemy during his Station on the Coast of Portugal,
MDCCLX.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, October 12.

"Since the Loss of Canada, nothing remains to be done, but to take the most efficacious Measures to repair our Losses, or to listen to an Accommodation. Accordingly these important Objects are the Subjects of daily Councils. On the 19th a Council was held in the King's Presence, when several Letters written by some Ministers, in the King of Prussia's Name, were read. In these Letters the King of Prussia insisted at great Length on the Necessity of making Peace, and took upon himself to obtain for France, Restitution of the greatest Part of the Conquests made by England, if our Court would but prevail with the two Empresses to desist from their Claims, and accommodate Matters with him, on giving an Indemnification to the King of Poland, and a certain Sum to Sweden, for the Expence of the War.

"The distressed State of our Finances would certainly make the Court listen to an Accommodation; but the great Difficulty is to make the Empress Queens sheathe the Sword, whose System the Court regret that they followed last Year, rejecting the Proposals of Peace made by England. Besides, it is feared that the Court of Vienna, inflated by their Conquests, will reject our Proposals, as we did theirs: And it is with Reason that, as we are assured, a Resolution hath been taken to carry on the War with Vigour, borrowing the Money for that Purpose, till we be able to dispute with England the Territories taken from us, or till some of the Neutral Powers, touched with the Effusion of so much innocent Blood, employ efficacious Means to put a Stop to a destructive War, in which almost all the four Parts of the World are involved."

ST. JAGO (in Jamaica) November 22.

The Defiance Man of War, on her late Cruize, met with a Fleet of 15 Merchantmen, homeward bound from Coracoa, convoyed by two Dutch Men of War; one of which being spoke with by the Defiance, informed, that one of the Merchantmen, called the Jusfro Catharina, a Day or two before had been ran foul of by another, whereby she was intirely lost, and all the Crew, but 14, perished.

On Tuesday arrived, in a Launch, a Lieutenant and 90 Men, belonging to his Majesty's Ship Harwich, cast away, the 22d ult. in very blowing thick Weather, upon the Isle de Pinos, 15 Leagues South of Cuba. She first struck on a Sand Bank, a little to the Westward of the Island, and immediately made Water so fast, that all the Pumps could scarce keep her from bilging. She drove however over the Bank, and anchored in five or six Fathom Water: But notwithstanding the utmost Endeavours of the Officers and Men, she filled so fast, that they were obliged to cut Cables, and let her drive ashore to preserve themselves; which they happily effected by Means of the Boats, and were kindly assisted and entertained by the Inhabitants of the Island; they did not lose a Man from the Time of their going out of Port, but one, who died on said Island, by eating a Land Crab. The Vessel was, after being deserted, set on Fire by some Marooners, either by Way of Diversion, or from some other idle Motive. Capt. Marsh went over to Cuba, from whence he is daily expected, as are also the Remainder of the Officers and Crew.

Nov. 29. On the 10th Inst. the Schooner Molly, Michael Kelly, Master, belonging to Kingston, was taken by a Spanish Guarda Costa, mounting 16 Carriage Guns, off Cape de la Vila, and sent to Rio de la Hatch. The said Guarda Costa then proceeded in Chace of two Sloops supposed to belong to this Island.

Borough of Elizabeth (New-Jersey) January 30.

Yesterday was solemnized here, the Proclaiming our present illustrious Sovereign KING GEORGE the Third. A large Detachment of the Militia, commanded by Capt. Woodruff, being drawn up on the Parade, before the Town-Hall; the Corporation, with their proper Officers, preceded by Captain Tyrrel's Troop of Horse, and followed by the Clergy, the Officers of His Majesty's Forces quartered here, and Numbers of the principal Inhabitants of the Borough, all went in very regular Procession to the Parade: Here the Clerk of the Borough, well mounted on Horseback, between the Militia Lines, published the Proclamation. After the usual Acclamations of the People, a Feu de Joye was performed by the Horse and Foot; and the Procession returned in the same Order. A genteel Entertainment was made by the Corporation, upon this joyful Event; to which were invited the Regular Officers, Strangers, and several Gentlemen of the Town; when His Majesty, His Glorious Ally, His Patriot Ministers, and Illustrious Commanders, were commemorated in the ample festive Glass. In the Evening, the Exhibition of a considerable Number of fine Sky-Rockets finished the Solemnity. And we flatter ourselves, that in Proportion to our Number, no Solemnities of the Kind, have been carried on with so much Elegance, Unanimity, and upright Conduct, as in this small, tho' Loyal Borough.

PHILADELPHIA, February 12.

On Monday last the brave Major ROGERS, with Captain BREME, arrived here from his long and fatiguing March to Detroit, where he was sent by His Excellency General AMHERST, in order to take Possession of the French Forts there; and from whence he was to have proceeded to Michillimachinac, 360 Miles beyond it, to bring off the French Soldiers that were in the Posts at that Place (as mentioned in this Paper, No. 1664.) But this he could not accomplish, on Account of the Ice, so was obliged to return, after having got within about 200 Miles of it.---The Major met with no Opposition, the People laying down their Arms, and taking the Oaths of Allegiance, agreeable to the Capitulation of Canada, and seemed, in general, well satisfied with being under an English Government.---At Detroit he found betwixt Four and Five Hundred Men capable of bearing Arms; a fine level rich Country, where, before the War, there was a great Deal of Wheat raised, Plenty of Cattle, and the Inhabitants lived very comfortably; tho' they have not done so of late, most of their Cattle being killed, and their Fields not cultivated as usual.---As soon as the Arrival of this Gentleman was known, the People here, to testify their Sense of his distinguished Merit, immediately ordered the Bells to be rung, and shewed him other Marks of Respect.---Yesterday he set off for New-York.

Monday the Schooner Mayflower, Captain Winter, from Teneriffe, came up to Town; several of the Vessels, mentioned in our last, are got into Darby-Creek, and are all expected up in a Day or two.

Captain Washington, from Jamaica, is in the River.

The Schooner Sally, Captain Henderson, for Tortola from this Place, is taken.

We are well assured, that the Managers of St. Paul's Church Lottery have already sold near Four Thousand of their Tickets: That they propose to roll up the Numbers, Blanks and Prizes, in order to put them into the Wheels, in about ten Days from this Date: And that they hope to be able to begin the Drawing on Monday, the second Day of March next.

Prince-Town, February 5, 1761.

YESTERDAY, about Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, died, at his House in this Town, the Reverend Mr. SAMUEL DAVIES, President of the College of New-Jersey, in the Thirty-eighth Year of his Age. He was seized last Monday Sen'night, with a violent inflammatory Fever, which greatly affected his Brain, and continued so obstinate as not to be controuled by the Power of Medicine. This sudden and unexpected Death of so great and good a Man, in the Midst of his extensive Usefulness, fills every Heart with Sorrow; and has apparently struck this Town and Seat of Learning into a perfect Panick; the Distress of the bereaved Family is not to be conceived, much less expressed. He was elected President of the College on the Death of the late Mr. EDWARDS, and at the repeated and earnest Sollicitations of the Trustees, his Removal from the important Sphere of his Usefulness in the Colony of Virginia, to this Society, was obtained in July, 1759; since which he has been the great Ornament and Promoter of this Seat of the Muses. His uncommon Talents in Point of Genius and Address, added to his indefatigable Application; his Piety, Catholicism, and universal Benevolence, at once secured him the Love and Veneration of his Pupils, and promised the greatest Advantages to the civil and religious Interests of this and the neighbouring Provinces. In private Life, he was not less agreeable, than in Publick eminent; in scarcely any Man was there ever more happily united the serious Christian, and the polite Gentleman; the faithful Friend, and the facetious Companion; the tenderest Husband, and the most affectionate Father.------ On reviewing all the various Qualifications of this excellent Person, it will, perhaps, be admitted, by the best Judges, that, for his Years, he was one of the most considerable Men, in his Way, upon the Continent. To-morrow Evening his Funeral is to be attended; when his Remains will be deposited near those of his Predecessors.

SCHEME

Of a LOTTERY for raising 3000 Pieces of Eight, for the Use of the COLLEGE, ACADEMY, and CHARITABLE SCHOOLS of PHILADELPHIA.

THIS extensive Seminary of Learning, by the Generosity of Individuals, having now been carried on for Ten Years, to the Credit and Emolument of the Province, every Person in it has had sufficient Opportunity to satisfy himself of its Usefulness. Great Sums of Money have been expended in fitting up the several Schools, repairing the public Hall, and purchasing a Philosophical Apparatus; sufficient Masters have also been provided, in the several Branches of Literature; two Charity-Schools, containing Eighty Boys, and Forty Girls, have been constantly maintained, and in them many poor Children, that would otherwise have been left destitute, have been rendered useful to the Community, and are now making a Figure in it; from all which an Expence of near Eight Hundred Pounds per Annum arises to the Trustees, above the Income of the Schools, the Advantage of which accrues entirely to the Public, in the Ease and Cheapness of Education.

In order, therefore, to compleat a Capital for the Defraying of this annual Expence, and to erect such additional Buildings as the Growth and present Circumstances of the Institution render absolutely necessary, the Trustees have been obliged to have Recourse to small Lotteries. And 'tis hoped the following Scheme will meet with all due Encouragement from the Friends of Learning and the Public.

AS a new Church, called St. PAUL's-CHURCH, has been thought necessary, for the Worship of ALMIGHTY GOD, to be erected in this City, by many well disposed Christians; who have, according to their Abilities, chearfully subscribed, and many of them paid considerable Sums of Money, towards carrying on this pious Work. In Consequence whereof, a very large and commodious Building hath been begun, and carried on to the full Height of the Brick Work: But it being judged that the Expence of completing and finishing this Church, will greatly exceed the Sums subscribed; therefore it is thought expedient to set up a LOTTERY, for the raising 3000 Pieces of Eight, which it is hoped will compleatly finish the said Church; and not doubted but all well Wishers to the true Worship of GOD, will favour and encourage this Undertaking.

The Drawing to begin punctually on the first Day of April next, or sooner, if sooner full. The Prizes to be published in this Gazette, and the Pennsylvania Journal, and the Prize Money to be paid as soon as the Drawing shall be finished, the aforesaid Deduction to be first made. Prize Money not demanded in six Months after the Publication of the Prizes, to be deemed as generously given to the Use of the said Church, and to be applied accordingly. The following Gentlemen are appointed Managers, viz. Walter Goodman, Thomas Campbell, John Ord, Plunket Fleeson, Ephraim Bonham, Andrew Bankson, Andrew Doz, Thomas Charlton, James Stevenson, John Young, James Claypoole, and Robert Towers; who are to give Bond, and be upon Oath, that they will truly execute the Trust in them reposed. CHARLES-TOWN (SOUTH-CAROLINA) Dec. 30.

LETTERS from Auguſta, dated the 22d Inſt. bring no favourable Accounts of the preſent Diſpoſition of the Creek Nation. The Long-Warrior of Coweta inform'd, that a great Number of Creeks and Cherokees were to have a Meeting about the Middle of this Month, in the Forks of Okonih River, about 20 Miles beyond the upper Path leading to the Oakfuſkees, which he thinks portends no Good. The Wolf was on his Way to Savannah, in Conſequence of the Invitation given him by Governor Ellis, and repeated by Lieutenant-Governor Wright, and was arrived at Ogeachy: He was accompanied by 12 other Indians, who ſerved as an Eſcort to Mr. James Germany, the Trader of Mucculaſſah.--Joſeph Cornel, who arrived at Auguſta the 21ſt, from the Upper Creek Nation, ſays, That the Indians were inſolent to the laſt Degree, and publickly threatened to cut off the Traders in the Spring, ſome ſay in February, others in March: That the Wolf continued our Friend, but he believed it would not be in his Power to prevent the French and Cherokee Party ſtriking a Blow ſoon: That the Mortar continued indefatigable in Behalf of the Cherokees; and his Brother openly declared, he would kill the Engliſh Traders as well in the Nation as on the Road to Auguſta: And that the Wolf deſired him (Cornel) if he, on his Way down, ſhould meet any Traders with Goods going up, to ſtop them from proceeding till he came down.

A Sloop and a Schooner, Captains Matthews and Weſt, from Boſton, are arrived at George-Town; as is alſo a Schooner from Salem, Captain Thorndyke. One of theſe Veſſels ſpoke with Capt. White, in a Snow from Plymouth, going into Cape-Fear.

The Sloop Sally, of and from Jamaica, Stephen Perkinſon Maſter, bound for Cape-Fear, foundered at Sea: The Maſter and Crew, with 11 Negroes, and ſome valuable Effects, were ſaved, and carried into Georgia, by Captain Howard, of the Schooner Barrington, on her Paſſage from Philadelphia.

Dec. 31. We have certain Advices from the Southward, that the Creeks and Cherokees were to have a Meeting in the Woods about this Time.

The Creek Indians ſtill continue coming to Savannah, but none of them pretend to have any Authority from their Nation. The well known Simpeoſey, or Fool-Harry, and the Young Lieutenant, are two of the Creeks that were to have the Meeting with the Cherokees. The Mortar continues his Attachment to the French; at the ſame Time the Wolf-King remains ſtanch to the Britiſh Intereſt, and intends to come down ſoon to ſee the Governors.

There have been no French Privateers ſince 1758 in the Harbour of St. Auguſtine, nor have any additional Works been made there, or the former repaired, ſince the Commencement of the preſent War.

Yeſterday four Chickeſaws arrived in Town, with a Talk to his Honour from Piamingo, who is at Auguſta, and is ſoon to return Home, when he will go out againſt the Cherokees.

The Little Carpenter (Attakullakulla) returned to Colonel Byrd's Camp punctually at his Time, with ſuch white Priſoners as he was able to purchaſe from the other Indians. He would have deſtroyed Lantiniac, and his Companions; but was told by the Indians, if he did ſo, they would deſtroy the white Priſoners. Lantiniac brought only one Keg of Powder, a little Brandy, and a few Knives and Hatchets, as Preſents. This Attakullakulla thinks will have no bad Effect, but on the contrary convince the Indians of the Poverty of the French, and their Inability to help them. He ſet out from the Camp, on his Return, about the 1ſt Inſt. having with his People received handſome Preſents from the Government of Virginia. His Party begins to increaſe in the Nation.

Jan. 10. On Tueſday and Thurſday arrived five large Tranſports from New-York (under Convoy of his Majeſty's Ship Nightingale, Captain Campbell) having on board upwards of 1100 Rank and File of his Majeſty's Troops, under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel James Grant. Theſe Troops are deſtined to act againſt the Cherokees, and will ſtay here no longer than is abſolutely neceſſary.---Six Mohawks are alſo arrived with the Troops.

On Thurſday ſome unfavourable Accounts were received from Auguſta, dated the 5th Inſtant. The Wolf had been there 13 Days, but ſeemed to decline the Viſit he intended to make to Georgia and this Province: His Return to the Creek Nation may be attended with very bad Conſequences.

January 14. On Thurſday laſt forty Waggons came to Monck's Corner from the back Settlements: Large Quantities of Proviſions having been ſent by the Contractors to Watboo-Landing, for the Magazines on the Frontiers, theſe Waggons are employed in that Service.

The Barracks, on which a great Number of Hands were employed, being put into Repair, agreeable to the Orders iſſued by the Governor, the Troops from New-York Yeſterday began to diſembark; they are in Number about twelve Hundred. We hear Quarters will be provided in Town for ſuch of the Officers as cannot be accommodated in the Barracks. 'Tis thought the Troops will remain here ſome Time, the Want of Forage rendering a March to the Weſtward at preſent impracticable.

The South-Carolina Regiment of Rangers, commanded by Major William Thomſon, is complete, viz. 525 Men, excluſive of Officers, and is continued in Pay.

By the laſt Advices all is quiet on the Frontiers towards the Cherokees. No Letters have been received from Mr. Miln, Commandant of Fort Prince George, Keowee, ſince thoſe dated 9th ult. which came to Hand about a Month ago.

Jan. 17. The Negroes, it ſeems have again begun the helliſh Practice of poiſoning. A Fellow called Abraham, belonging to Mr. John Gibbons, and a Wench of Mr. George Fickling, were executed laſt Wedneſday, on Wadmelah-Iſland, convicted of that Crime. Mr. Fickling was the Perſon poiſoned, but having ſpeedy Recourſe to Cæſar's Antidote, he recovered.

January 21. On Saturday laſt, on a Meſſage from his Honour the Governor, the Honourable the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly reſolved to make Proviſion for continuing the ſeven Companies of Rangers in the Pay of this Province till October next, and for raiſing and paying another Troop of Rangers, to conſiſt, as the former, of a Captain, two Lieutenants, and 75 Privates. The Houſe have likewiſe provided Pay for an Adjutant, Quarter-maſter and Surgeon for the Rangers, and a Sum to purchaſe a Medicine-cheſt. The Captains, Lieutenants, and Surgeon of the Rangers have the ſame Pay as the Officers of the like Rank in the Provincial Regiment of Foot. By another Reſolution, the Houſe reſolved to make good any Deficiency that may have ariſen in the Money provided for the Pay of the Rangers to the firſt of December laſt.

The new Company of Rangers, we are aſſured from good Hands, will be immediately filled up, when that Regiment, commanded by Major Thomſon, will conſiſt of ſix Hundred, excluſive of Officers.

Letters from Auguſta of 29th ult. and 4th Inſtant, received laſt Thurſday, ſay, That our old firm Friend the Wolf King of Mucculaſſah, in the Creek Nation, had been there for ſome Time, and was preparing to ſet out for Savannah to ſee Governor Wright; whence he will come to Charleſtown to ſee Governor Bull. He ſeemed well ſatisfied, and by a Letter of 11th Inſtant we learn he was to go to Savannah next Day.

The Cherokees and Creeks ſeem to be determined to keep up the War; which will, no Doubt, end in the Deſtruction of both.

Now in the Port of Charles-Town, three of his Majeſty's Ships of 20 Guns, five large Tranſport Ships, one Privateer Brig, and the following Merchant Veſſels, viz. 21 Ships, 8 Snows, 20 Brigs, 5 Schooners, and 12 Sloops: In all 75 Sail.

On Monday his Honour the Governor ſent a Meſſage to the Aſſembly, concerning Neceſſaries, &c. for the Troops lately arrived from New-York under the Command of Col. Grant, and Yeſterday the Houſe reſolved to provide for defraying the Expence of fitting up the Barracks with Beſteds and Chimnies, alſo Lodgings for the Officers, and an Hoſpital for the Sick, and the uſual Barrack-neceſſaries for all the Troops now in Charleſtown; likewiſe Firewood for the Officers and Men, according to the Eſtimate ſent with his Honour's Meſſage; an additional Quantity of Wood (ten Cords per Month) for the Main Guard; alſo, that the four Officers and Men of the old Independant Companies be provided with Barrack neceſſaries, the ſame as the Troops lately arrived, while theſe remained in the Barracks.

This Day arrived a Meſſenger from the Cherokees with Diſpatches to his Honour from Mr. Miln Commandant of Fort Prince George, Keowee.

Fort Prince George, Jan. 9th, 1761.---"The Young Warrior of Eſtatoe, with ten other Indians of that Town, went down towards the Settlements about 25th ult. and about two Miles from Beaver-dams came up with two Men, ſuppoſed to be of the Rangers, one of whom they ſcalped, and laid his dead Body acroſs the Road, the other made his Eſcape.---The Indians of Settiquo tied one of the Women belonging to the Garriſon of Fort Loudoun to a Stake, and ſhot her full of Arrows, in which miſerable Condition ſhe died. We learn that the Indians of Tellico and Settiquo declare they will put every white Priſoner to Death whenever they hear of an Army being at Ninety-ſix; and they have ſent down Powder and Ball to theſe lower Towns People, with Orders to watch the Road, and give them Notice of the Approach of an Army; for this Purpoſe Scouts are conſtantly kept out, and as one Party comes in another goes out, whereby the Road is never clear. There ſeems as little Proſpect of an Accommodation as when they firſt broke out.---We expect Major Thomſon will ſoon make us another Viſit.---I have ſeen ſeveral Winters in the North of Scotland, and do not think I ever felt it colder than here at this Time; the Snow is in general three Quarters of a Yard deep, attended with very ſharp Froſts.---

----"Jan. 11. I diſpatched the Expreſs laſt Night; he went as far as Twelve-mile River, where he heard the Noiſe of a Hatchet as employed in cutting Wood, and preſently after diſcovered two Fires on the oppoſite or Eaſtern Side of the River, one at each fording Place; this made him return with as much Haſte as poſſible, being afraid they might take his Track as the Snow lay thick on the Ground; he got back to the Fort undiſcovered."

I had this Day the following Intelligence; "The Indians of theſe lower Towns are all in a ſtarving Conditon, not having a Grain of Corn to eat, and inſtead of their Chints and Callicoe Petticoats, they are now making them of Deer-ſkins. The Creeks have ſent Runners to theſe Indians (the lower Towns) inviting them to the Creek Nation, where they are to be protected, and in three Days they ſet off in Conſequence of this Invitation and Promiſe: The Creeks have likewiſe promiſed the other Towns of the Nation, that they will aſſiſt them if they are attacked by the Engliſh. Oucannoſtota is returned from the French Fort with Powder and Ball, accompanied with ſome Frenchmen, but how many I cannot learn. None of the Indians, poſſeſſed of white Priſoners, will part with them unleſs they are paid for them. The Young Warrior sent me Word, that as he was now going out of the Nation (to the Creeks) I would see who were Rogues when he was gone.---He says the Standing-Turkey put the Hatchet into his Hands, and bid him carry on the War; and particularly that he ordered him to way-lay the Express that brought the last Peace-Talk from the Middle-Settlements, kill him, and take the Letters.---"

We learn from Ninety-six of 14th Instant, that the Indians who lay in wait for Richard Robertson, the last Messenger sent up, killed a poor Man whom they took for him, by which Means Robertson got up safe.

"Captain Bell at Ninety-six having received Intelligence that M'Gunningham and James Welsh, with a Squaw in Fort Ninety-six, were Spies for the Indians, sent them down to Congarees under a Guard, on the 14th Instant; the two last were delivered as Prisoners at the Camp, but M'Gunningham got off."

Monday last Captain Moultrie set out from the Camp at Congarees, with a Detachment, to escort thirty Waggons loaded with Flour to the Magazine at Ninety-six.

BOSTON, January 26.

Captain Furlong, late of a Schooner, bound from Quebec to New-York, arrived here Yesterday Passenger in a Vessel from Halifax, and informs, That after he left the River St. Lawrence, he met with very bad Weather, which obliged him to lay to; when, on the 13th of November, at Ten o'Clock at Night, his Vessel drove on Isle-Sable:---He had on board Major Elliot, with his Lady, and a Party of about 50 regular Troops, who all got on Shore safe, excepting two of the Seamen that were drowned. When they landed, they found the Company of another Schooner, which had been cast away a few Days before, one Potter, Master, belonging to Ipswich, and was bound from Louisbourg for Boston:---There being no Place for Habitation, or Wood for Fuel, on the Island, they took the Sails of the Vessels to make a Covering, and Pieces of the Wrecks served for Firing, it being exceeding cold Weather. There were a Number of live Cattle on the Island; but they saved little or no Bread, nor indeed scarce any Thing that belonged to the Vessels.---After being seven Weeks in this deplorable Condition, they discovered a Marblehead Schooner making towards them; but the Sea running high, and the Weather very boisterous, only the above Captain Furlong, and some of the Seamen could get on board: They immediately sailed for Halifax, leaving the Major, with his Lady, and about 50 others behind; who were in Health, except Captain Potter.

The above Marblehead Schooner was fitted out by the People of that Place, in Quest of one of their Fishing Schooners, which had been missing from the Banks the last Fishing Season, and supposed to be on the above Island Sable; but tho' they had not the Pleasure of finding their Brethren there, yet they came very opportunely to the Relief of others in Distress.---Upon the Arrival of the above Schooner at Halifax, Com. Lord Colvill ordered one of the Tenders to accompany the Marblehead Schooner, which was taken into Pay, to proceed immediately to Island Sable, to bring off those left behind.

We hear from Lyme in Connecticut, that Yesterday Se'nnight in a Snow Storm, two Men belonging to that Town, and both named Samuel Beckwith, and Cousins, were drowned there.---'Tis supposed they were coming from a Wood Vessel in a Canoe, and crossing a Flatt the Canoe overset; and by the Severity of the Weather, they were so chilled as to be unable to reach the Shore.---They were taken up the succeeding Evening, and interred on Tuesday.

Saturday Evening last a Man was discovered in a Dwelling House at the South End of the Town, which he had entered, and ascended the Stairs in such a private Manner as not to be heard, while an Accomplice of his stood at the Door, and enquired for a Person under a fictitious Name: Proper Assistance being had, the Fellow in the House was seized, while his Comrade made off, and being carried before one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, was by him sent to Goal: The Fellow pretended his Name was Patrick Moore, Alias Plunket, and that his Companion was named James Doit, afterwards James Hamilton; that they were from New-York and Rhode-Island: He says he came to New-York in the Ship Sampson, Capt. Greatrakes, last August, and had with the Crew been tried and cleared, for firing into His Majesty's Ship the Winchester, wherein were three Men killed.

New-Port (in Rhode-Island) Feb. 3. A Hog near three Years old, raised on the Island of Canonicut, by John Martin, Esq; was killed on Wednesday last. He weighed 739 lb. when dead; the Length of his Body was 7 Feet 10 Inches; and one of his fore Legs 16 Inches in Circumference.

NEW-YORK, February 12.

We hear that the Ship General Johnson, from Jamaica for this Port, is aground near Shrewsbury.

On Saturday Evening arrived Capt. Jordon, in a Sloop from Maryland, bound to this Place, but meeting with bad Weather was obliged to put into New-Port; we hear most of his People were Frost-bitten.

We hear that His Majesty's Ship Fowey, Capt. Tonyn, is expected to sail next Week for Boston and Halifax.

Friday last Capt. Stewart arrived here in 21 Days from St. Eustatia, in whom came three Seamen late belonging to the Sloop Dolphin, of New Haven, Gadwell, Master. They inform us, That being bound to Antigua, within about 12 Leagues of it, on the 20th December last, they were taken by a French Privateer of 8 Guns, and 45 Men, Petton, Commander, and that she was sent up to Martinico, together with the Capt. who soon got to Eustatia. These Men were kept ten Days on board the Privateer, when they came across a Dutch Ship bound to that Island, on board of whom they were put.

They also inform us, that another Sloop, called the Ruby, belonging to New-Haven, Phineas Cook, Master, outward bound, was taken about ten Days after by a French Privateer Sloop of 15 Guns, after two Hours smart Engagement, when the Frenchmen boarded Cook, they used him extremely ill, running a Broad Sword through his Arm, and beating him about with the Butt End of a Gun, insomuch that his Life was despaired of. This Prize Monsieur sent into St. Martins.

By a Letter received lately from Lambert Garrison, Master of the Brig Young William, of this Port, who sailed from Bristol the 29th October, bound to New-York, we have an Account of his being obliged to put into St. Christophers by Stress of Weather, having lain on his Beam-ends, and has had four and a Half Feet Water in his Hold; all his Spars, and some of his Water, washed off his Deck, whereby said Vessel was rendered unfit to come upon this Coast: The greatest Part of his Cargo is damaged.

Friday last the Billander William and Anne, Captain Heslip, arrived here from London, with King's Stores, after a tedious Passage of 14 Weeks.

We hear there are now not less than 15 Privateers belonging to Hispaniola, and that they met with great Success; one of them took Capt. Prince, in a Sloop belonging to this Port, off Cow Harbour, the Day he sailed from Kingston, in Jamaica.

Friday last the Garrison of Detroit arrived here from Philadelphia, about 40 in Number, and were immediately sent to Long-Island.

The Sloop Dove, Fenton, Master, belonging to this Port, is taken by a French Privateer, and carried into Santa-Croix.

PHILADELPHIA, February 19.

The Managers of St. Paul's Church Lottery are now rolling up the Numbers, Blanks and Prizes, at a very large and convenient Store, on Captain Goodman's Wharff; where the Drawing will certainly begin on Monday, the second Day of March next.------There are a few of the Tickets still left, which may be had of the Managers, and of William Bradford, William Dunlap, and David Hall.

Captain Washington, from Jamaica, on the Sixth of January, off Cape Nichola, spoke with Captain Hickey, in the Sloop Pine-Apple, bound to Monto Christi from Virginia. And two Days after he fell in with a Privateer belonging to New-Providence, the Commander of which informed him, that he had spoke with a Providence Vessel, a Wrecker, that had taken several Men off the Hogsties, that were cast away there in a large Ship from Jamaica, which is supposed to be the Eagle Galley, of Bristol, Captain Nash, as the same Day a large lower Mast, without any Rigging on it, was seen floating along Side Captain Washington's Vessel.

Arrived from this Port. The Captains Greenway, Cleague, Wallace, Robeson, and Noarth, at South-Carolina.

At Jamaica. Captain Haselton.

At Barbados. Captains Price, Powell, and Scott.

Captain Rith, from Maryland, is also arrived at Barbados.

SCHEME

Of a LOTTERY for raising 3000 Pieces of Eight, for the Use of the COLLEGE, ACADEMY, and CHARITABLE SCHOOLS of PHILADELPHIA.

THIS extensive Seminary of Learning, by the Generosity of Individuals, having now been carried on for Ten Years, to the Credit and Emolument of the Province, every Person in it has had sufficient Opportunity to satisfy himself of its Usefulness. Great Sums of Money have been expended in fitting up the several Schools, repairing the public Hall, and purchasing a Philosophical Apparatus; sufficient Masters have also been provided, in the several Branches of Literature; two Charity-Schools, containing Eighty Boys, and Forty Girls, have been constantly maintained, and in them many poor Children, that would otherwise have been left destitute, have been rendered useful to the Community, and are now making a Figure in it; from all which an Expence of near Eight Hundred Pounds per Annum arises to the Trustees, above the Income of the Schools, the Advantage of which accrues entirely to the Public, in the Ease and Cheapness of Education.

In order, therefore, to compleat a Capital for the Defraying of this annual Expence, and to erect such additional Buildings as the Growth and present Circumstances of the Institution render absolutely necessary, the Trustees have been obliged to have Recourse to small Lotteries. And 'tis hoped the following Scheme will meet with all due Encouragement from the Friends of Learning and the Public.

Tickets are now selling by the Managers, at their respective Dwellings; William Bradford, at the London Coffee-House, and David Hall, at the New Printing-Office, in Market-street.

IT is generally acknowledged, that a Variety of Steeples of different Form, beautifies Cities, and renders the Prospect more agreeable. And whereas a considerable Sum of Money has been laid out (some Time since) upon one, adjoining to the Presbyterian Church in Arch-street; which for Want of being finished, neither gives Pleasure to the Eye, nor adds to the Beauty of the City; and Help being needed to compleat the above Design, it is thought necessary to request it in the Way of a Lottery; which it is hoped generous Persons, of different Societies, and Denominations, who wish well to the Credit and Weal of the Community in general; Persons who are desirous to increase the Ornaments of this large and growing Metropolis, will freely encourage.

N. B. What is got by the Lottery, will, without Fail, be applied towards finishing the aforesaid Steeple, as soon as Workmen and Materials can be had.

The large Number of midling Prizes is also a great Advantage; and the Deduction is but small, being only Fifteen per Cent. The Drawing to begin punctually on the Thirteenth Day of April next, or sooner, if sooner full. The Prizes to be published in this Gazette, and the Pennsylvania Journal, and the Prize-money to be paid as soon as the Drawing shall be finished, the aforesaid Deduction to be first made. By the HONOURABLE

JAMES HAMILTON, Eſq;

Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of Pennſylvania, and Counties of New-Caſtle, Kent and Suſſex, on Delaware,

A PROCLAMATION.

Pennſylvania, ſſ.

WHEREAS divers Perſons, the natural born Subjects of His Majeſty, belonging to ſome of our neighbouring Colonies, have lately come into this Province; and, without any Licence or Grant from the Honourable Proprietaries, or Authority from the Government, have preſumed, in a Body, to poſſeſs themſelves of, and ſettle upon, a large Tract of Land in this Province, not yet purchaſed from the Indians, near Cuſhietunck, on the River Delaware, and in the upper Parts of Northampton County; and are endeavouring to perſuade and inveigle many of the Inhabitants of this and the neighbouring Provinces, to confederate and join with them in their illegal and dangerous Deſigns, and to aſſiſt in ſettling and holding the ſaid Lands by ſtrong Hand: AND WHEREAS the Delaware Chief, Teedyuſcung, hath made a very earneſt and formal Complaint and Remonſtrance to me againſt the ſaid Practices, inſiſting that the Intruders ſhould be immediately removed by the Government to which they belonged, or by me; and declared, if this was not done, the Indians would come and remove them by Force, and do themſelves Juſtice; with which he deſired they might be made acquainted before hand, that they might not pretend Ignorance; which has been ſince accordingly done by my Order. WHEREFORE, as well to aſſert the juſt Rights of the Proprietaries of this Province to the ſaid Lands, and to preſerve the Peace and Friendſhip, which is now ſo happily reſtored and ſubſiſting between us and the Indians, and prevent the terrible Conſequences that muſt neceſſarily ariſe, by their carrying into Execution their Threats of removing by Force the Intruders on the ſaid Lands, as alſo to warn and prevent any of the Inhabitants of this Province from being unwarily drawn in to join the ſaid Intruders, in their intended Deſign of making Settlements in the ſaid Indian Country, I HAVE judged it proper, by and with the Advice of the Council, to iſſue this Proclamation, hereby ſtrictly requiring and enjoining, in His Majeſty's Name, all and every Perſon and Perſons, already ſettled or reſiding on the ſaid Lands, immediately to depart, and move away from the ſame. AND DO hereby forbid all His Majeſty's Subjects, of this or any other Province or Colony, on any Pretence whatſoever, to intrude upon, ſettle or poſſeſs, any of the ſaid Lands, or any other the Lands within the Limits of this Province, not yet purchaſed of the Indians, as they will anſwer the contrary at their Peril, and on Pain of being proſecuted with the utmoſt Rigour of the Law. AND I do hereby alſo ſtrictly charge, enjoin and require, all Sheriffs, Magiſtrates, Peace Officers, and all other His Majeſty's Liege People within this Province, to exert themſelves, and uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to proſecute, and bring to Juſtice and condign Puniſhment, all Offenders in the Premiſes.

Given under my Hand, and the Great Seal of the ſaid Province, at Philadelphia, the Twentieth Day of February, in the Year of our LORD One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Sixty-one; and in the Firſt Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE the Third, by the Grace of GOD of Great-Britain, France and Ireland King, Defender of the Faith, &c.

JAMES HAMILTON.

By his Honour's Command,

GOD Save the KING.

On Saturday laſt arrived here the Indian Trader, Captain Anthony Robinſon, from London; his Paſſage five Weeks from the Land; by whom we thought to have had the Particulars of the Victory gained by the King of Pruſſia over Marſhal Daun; but of this we are diſappointed; no Papers being come in the Ship, that we can hear of, from the 24th of November (when they were not come to Hand) to the 27th of December. What other Intelligence Captain Robinſon brings, is as follows, viz.

ALTENA, November 4.

WE have been ſet right in ſeveral Particulars relating to the late hoſtile Viſit paid to Berlin.

The Apartments of the Royal Caſtle were not ſtripped. All the Windows of the Arſenal were far from being deſtroyed. The Magazine of Hay and Straw ſtill ſubſiſts. The Ruſſians and Auſtrians took out of it only what was neceſſary during their Stay at Berlin. The Number of Horſes they carried off greatly exceeded ſome Hundreds; many of them have been re-purchaſed by their Owners at a very high Price. The foreign Miniſters reſiding at Berlin, did not formally interpoſe in Behalf of the Town: What they did as private Men, is nothing to the World.

It is further related of Prince Eſterhaſi, an Auſtrian Major-General, who commanded at Potzdam, and that Neighbourhood, and who is much commended by the Pruſſians for the good Diſcipline he cauſed to be obſerved: That having examined the magnificent Caſtle of Sans Souci, he aſked that Picture of the King of Pruſſia, which reſembled him moſt; but that a good One not being readily found, he aſked another, with two German Flutes which his Majeſty uſed, to keep them, he ſaid, in Memory of his Majeſty.

Hague, Dec. 20. Letters from Brunſwic aſſure, that the Allies have laid aſide their Deſign againſt Gottingen, on account not only of the Seaſon, but of the Preparations made by the French for a vigorous Defence; and that they had even raiſed the Blockade, in order to ſend the Troops into Winter Quarters.

This News is confirmed by Letters from Francfort of the 14th, and from Cologn of the 19th. Thoſe from Francfort ſay, that the Troops employed in the Blockade had marched towards Eimbeck, and that the Body of the Allies, which had been poſted ever ſince November 22, on the Left of the Dymel, and in the Woods of Sababourg, had likewiſe retired, in order to go into the Quarters aſſigned them; and that, in Conſequence of theſe Meaſures, the French Army would alſo ſoon go into Winter Quarters.

Letters from the Army under Prince Ferdinand, dated the 15th, adviſe, that his Serene Highneſs fixed his Head Quarters on the 13th at Uſlar; and that the Hereditary Prince arrived on the 14th at Munſter; but, it was thought, would not ſtay there long.

Hague, Dec. 22. The laſt Accounts from the Weſer import, that the Inclemency of the Seaſon not permitting the Troops to keep the Field any longer, the greateſt Part of both Armies was already cantoned; that on the 12th Inſtant ſome Engliſh Regiments arrived in the Biſhoprick of Paderborn; and that Lord Granby was expected on the 14th at the City of that Name, where he is to fix his Head Quarters during the Winter.

Hanover, Dec. 12. Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwic, to encourage the bringing of Proviſions to his Army, has offered Premiums over and above the juſt Price of what is furniſhed.

Hanover, Dec. 13. The Badneſs of the Roads hath obliged the Pruſſians, who were marching to join the Allies near Gottingen, to halt in Thuringia.

Berlin, Dec. 13. The King of Pruſſia arrived at Leipſic the 8th Inſtant in perfect Health. A Part of the Muſicians belonging to the King's Chapel, are gone thither from this City.

Vienna, Dec. 3. The Head Quarters of the Auſtrian Army will be this Winter at Dreſden. The Army is cantoned from that Town to the Frontiers of Bohemia.----- Marſhal Daun arrived here Yeſterday, and was moſt graciouſly received.

Dec. 6. Peace hath been much talked of for ſome Days; the Conditions offered by the Enemy are even mentioned; and it is ſaid, that a Truce will be agreed on, to facilitate the Preliminaries to this great Work.

Altena, Dec. 19. Some Letters from Saxony mention, that a Convention is on the Carpet for a Suſpenſion of Hoſtilities between the Pruſſians and Auſtrians in Saxony during the Winter.

Prague, Dec. 5. It is rumoured, that the King of Pruſſia hath offered to yield to the Empreſs Queen Upper Sileſia, and the County of Glatz, provided Lower Sileſia, including the City of Breſlau, be guarantied to him.

Prague, December 9. M. Laudohn ſtill remains near the Wartha, where the Pruſſians pay him Viſits daily. General Goltz, who has reinforced the Poſt of Landſhut with a Regiment of Dragoons, remains quiet with the reſt: He has propoſed a Suſpenſion of Arms, but M. Laudohn has refuſed it; they talk of ſome Enterprize of the Pruſſians againſt Glatz; but the Roads are ſo broken, that they will not be able to ſucceed.

Bamberg, December 7. The Army of the Empire is again in March, but do not go into Saxony, as was reported a few Days ago; their Head-quarters are to be here. Two Regiments of Horſe are to winter at Anſpach; their Pontoons and Military Cheſt are already at Nuremberg.

Auſtrian Head-Quarters at Dreſden, Dec. 9. All is quiet here, as well as in the Pruſſian Army, the Army of the Empire having retired into Franconia. The Enemy has occupied Freyberg; they extend towards the Confines of Bohemia, and ſome of their Parties appear on the Side of Egra. As it appears that the Enemy is ſtill meditating ſomething, we are upon our Guard; in Conſequence of which, three general Rendezvous have been aſſigned to our Army; namely, Dreſden, Dippolſwalde, and Altenberg. The greateſt Part of the Infantry is cantoned in the Environs of this Capital. The Corps under M. Maguire is at Dippolſwalde; that under M. Laſcy between thoſe two Places. General d'Ayaſſes is at Altenberg, and General Eſterhazy occupies the moſt diſtant Poſts on the Wiſerits. The Enemy has 10 Poſts oppoſite to him at Wilſdruff. General Beck is near Neudorff and Langenbruck, with his Corps of national Hungarian Militia, with ſome German Battalions, and the two Regiments of Savoy, and Darmſtadt Dragoons. General Vogelſang commands at Bautzen, with a Regiment of Cavalry, and three Battalions; and his Communication with the reſt of the Army is kept open by eight Regiments, moſt of whom are quartered beyond the Elbe.

Berlin, December 17. We learn from Pomerania, that the greateſt Part of the Ruſſian Army has paſſed the Viſtula, and is gone to take Winter Quarters in Pruſſia. Gen. Tottleben, who forms the Rear, was at Stolpen on the firſt Inſtant. General Werner, who follows him, advanced as far as Schlawe on the Second; and now the Neighbourhood of Colberg, Coſlin, and Belgardt, are entirely freed from the Enemy.

The Corps under Prince Xavierus, which was near Langen Saltza, expecting to winter in Thuringia, retired towards Eiſenach, at the Approach of ſome of the King's Troops.

Erfurth, December 12. The King of Pruſſia arrived at Leipſic on the 8th, where is alſo the Directory of the War, with all the Military Cheſts. His Majeſty demands 2,069,405 Crowns of the Circle of Leipſic for the Year 1761, independent of other Taxes. The Bailiwick of Zwickau was to furniſh the Troops in Garriſon at Chemnitz, on the firſt Inſtant, with 2746 Meaſures of Oats, 23,776 Rations of Hay, 5283 Truſſes of Straw, and 10676 Ammunition Loaves. There are four Battalions of Pruſſian Grenadiers and Fuſileers in Chemnitz, one Frank Battalion, and two Squadrons of Huſſars in Zwickau, and two other Squadrons in the neighbouring Villages; four Regiments of Cavalry, two of Dragoons, one of Huſſars, and two of Infantry, under General Aſcherſleben, between Querfurth and Freyburg, beyond the Unſtrut. This laſt Corps was to join the Allied Army on the Leine, but was apprehenſive of marching on Account of the French, who were quartered on the Werra, and in the Principality of Eiſenach, as far as Gotha.

Baruth, Dec. 10. The Army of the Empire was continually harraſſed in its Retreat from Saxony, and has greatly ſuffered; it is ſo weakened, that many of the Regiments which compoſe it are reduced, ſome to 200, others to 300 Men at moſt; they are going to take Winter Quarters in Franconia, and do not amount in the Whole to above 9000 Men.

Leipſic, Dec. 12. The King of Pruſſia has been here ſince the 8th; a good Part of the Auſtrian Cavalry is gone into Bohemia, in order to get Subſiſtence more eaſily. M. O'Donnell is ſtill under Dreſden. As to the Pruſſian Army, it occupies above two Thirds of Saxony; ten or twelve Thouſand Men have been detached from it to reinforce Prince Ferdinand; a ſufficient Proof that his Majeſty was victorious at the Affair of Septitz.

LONDON, November 18.

After General Yorke had imparted to the other foreign Miniſters at the Hague, the News of King George the Second's Death, and the Acceſſion of his Grandſon to the Throne of Great-Britain, they all in Turn waited on his Excellency, with Compliments of Condolance and Congratulation, as is uſual on ſuch Occaſions, except the French Ambaſſador, who omitted the congratulatory Part in his Harangue; in Conſequence of which Neglect, it is ſaid Orders have ſince been ſent to General Yorke, to avoid all Intercourſe or Interviews with the French Ambaſſador, and to ſhun as much as poſſible the Meeting of him any where accidentally.

By Letters from Holland we learn, that the French Ambaſſador is endeavouring to borrow for his Court, from the Merchants of Amſterdam and Rotterdam, two or three Millions. But it is thought he will not meet with his uſual Succeſs, Mr. Yorke having remonſtrated, that thoſe two Towns were greatly inſtrumental in protracting the War, by the Aſſiſtance they gave to his Maſter's Enemies.

Francfort, Dec. 16. It appears very plainly, that the French will keep their Ground during this Winter in Heſſe, and maintain the Poſts they poſſeſs at Gottingen. This Advantage is no ſmall one, and it is attributed to the extraordinary Meaſures taken by Marſhal Broglio, as likewiſe to the good Behaviour of the Officers employed under him.

By the laſt Advices from the Swediſh Army we are informed, that General Lantingſhauſen, the Commander in Chief, had received an expreſs Order from Stockholm, not to fall back any further, but to wait for the Pruſſians, in caſe they advanced towards the Part of Pomerania belonging to the Crown of Sweden. L O N D O N.

November 20. It was remarked by many old People Yeſterday, who were to ſee his Majeſty go to the Houſe, that there never was ſo great a Crowd of almoſt all Ranks, both in the Park, and in the Houſes, on any ſimilar Occaſion. Nor ever did the People appear ſo unanimous in teſtifying their Applauſe. His Majeſty was pleaſed to expreſs his Satisfaction both in his Countenance and Behaviour, bowing from each Window ſeveral times as he paſſed along.

Yeſterday the Right Honourable the Houſe of Peers waited on His Majeſty at St. James's with their Addreſs.

We hear that his Majeſty's Speech meets with ſuch general Approbation among the Merchants, &c. that they are going to have it reprinted, and put in a Gold Frame, &c.

The Dreadnought, Bailey, from Londonderry to New-York, is put back into Loughendall, with ſix Feet Water in her Hold, and is ſince ſtranded.

Letters from the Hague mention, that the Dutch look upon the King of England's Death as one of the greateſt Misfortunes that could befal their State, as he was always diſpoſed to accept of the Apologies made for Irregularities committed by their Subjects, during the preſent War, without coming to Extremities, from the Regard he had conceived, early in Life, for that Proteſtant State, on Account of its hearty Concurrence in the Grand Alliance formed by King William againſt France; and it is for this Reaſon the States General are ſending over an Ambaſſador Extraordinary.

Some Letters from Germany mention, that the Wirtembergers, who have been hitherto in the Emperor's private Pay, have been taken into the Pay of France; in Conſequence of which they are to join Marſhal Broglio's Army.

The laſt Letters from Paris adviſe, that the Count de Stahrenberg, the Auſtrian Miniſter, had had ſeveral Conferences with the Duke de Choiſeuil, on the Means of carrying on the War vigorouſly. The Count deſired the Miniſter to put his Maſter in Mind of the Engagements he had contracted with the Empreſs Queen, to which her Majeſty would inviolably adhere: That her Majeſty had preferred the Alliance of France to the Propoſals made her ſome Time before the War, which tended to nothing leſs than overturning the whole French Monarchy: And that the firſt Bait thrown out to her was the Proſpect of conquering Alſace and Lorrain, and annexing them to the Dominions of the Houſe of Auſtria, as an Indemnification for Sileſia, which was to remain in the King of Pruſſia's Poſſeſſion.

The Auſtrian Miniſter further added, that as his Pruſſian Majeſty, on the firſt conſiderable Check he received, would be forced to make a ſpeedy Peace, the Wirtembergers and a Body of Auſtrians would, if neceſſary, join Marſhal Broglio's Army, to enable him to ſecure good Quarters during the Winter in the Electorate of Hanover.

A Gentleman lately arrived from Hamburgh ſays, it was currently reported there, that a Scheme was on Foot for making a Winter's Campaign in Germany; and that ſeveral Veſſels had lately ſailed up the Weſer with Proviſions and Forage for the Allied Army.

The Court of France has lately conſulted with Stateſmen who are out, as well as thoſe who are in Power, as to the Means of raiſing Supplies, and have been told, that till the public Tranquillity is reſtored, and with it the Means of reviving the Subjects Induſtry, it is out of the Reach, either of Power or Art, to raiſe the Sums that a new Campaign will render neceſſary.

The laſt Letters from Francfort adviſe, that the City of Gottingen is deſtined by the French to be their Vedette (or advanced Guard of Horſe) to cover their Quarters on the Werra. Marſhal Broglio was expected in a few Days to remove from the New Town of Caſſel to the Landgrave's Palace in the Old Town. The General Head Quarters, with ſix Battalions, will alſo be lodged, during the Winter, in the Old Town. A much greater Number of Troops will be put into the New Town, for every Houſe is to have ſome, excepting only the Palace of Pictures, and the Prince of Orange's Palace.

We hear that Admiral Boſcawen is ſomething better.

Laſt Week Col. Burgoyne's Regiment of Light Horſe arrived in Town from on board the Expedition Fleet at Portſmouth; both Men and Horſes look ill; they are going into Winter Quarters in Northamptonſhire.

We hear that a Scheme will ſhortly be made publick for raiſing a ſufficient Fund to enable the Governors of the Foundling Hoſpital to keep the ſame open conſtantly for the Reception of all Children that may be offered, and that without burthening the Publick with any new Tax.

"The King, who, ſince his Return from Fontainbleau, has never quitted Verſailles, held a grand Council laſt Sunday, wherein it was reſolved to carry into Execution the Plan projected by M. Bertin, Comptroller-General of the Finances, for the Employment of his Majeſty's Revenues, during the Courſe of the next Year.

"No Remedies have any Effect on the Duke of Burgundy's Diſtemper; his Strength is entirely exhauſted, but he ſtill preſerves his Senſes, and daily applies himſelf to ſpiritual Exerciſes. Being much better acquainted with Religion than is uſual at his Age, he ardently deſired to make his firſt Communion; but as the Ceremonies of Baptiſm, which had been deferred, were firſt neceſſary, that Office was performed the 29th ult. in his Cloſet, without any Pomp or Attendance, their Majeſties being Sponſors: The King gave him the Name of Louis, and the Queen added thoſe of Joſeph Xavier. After which the young Prince was confirmed, and the next Day received his firſt Communion with great Piety, at a Maſs performed in his Chamber, by the King's Almoner."

By a Cartel Ship arrived from Rochelle, we have the following Account, viz. "At Spithead, Admiral Holborne with 24 Ships of War."

Dec. 30. By a Letter from Prague it appears, the Pruſſians are Maſters of the Circle of the Mountains, as they are poſſeſſed of Chemnitz, Neſſar, Freiberg, Franenſtein, Plauen, and Zwickau, and that they are apprehenſive the Pruſſians will attempt an Invaſion of Bohemia, which they are guarding againſt with the utmoſt Diligence; and further acquaints us, that his Pruſſian Majeſty has demanded 20,000 Recruits of the Electorate of Saxony, who are to be cloathed by the Town of Leipſic.

Yeſterday in the Afternoon an Expreſs arrived at the Admiralty from Admiral Boſcawen's Seat near Guildford in Surry; and another Expreſs at Court, with Advice, that the Phyſicians thought the Admiral ſomething better, which gave great Satisfaction to all who heard it. Lord Howe, and ſeveral other Perſons of Diſtinction, are gone to ſee the Admiral. Expreſſes are ſent from the Admiralty continually to the Admiral's Country Seat.

An eſſential Piece of Service might be performed, which would do more Honour to the Nation than ſuffering the Ships of War to rot in the Harbours, or upon inſignificant Cruizes; namely, an Attack upon the Miſſiſippi Settlements. The Advantage of which, if ſucceſsful, would not only be in the Conqueſt, but would ſtrike ſuch an univerſal Terror among the Cherokees, and all the reſt of the Indian Nations, that they would not hereafter preſume to take up the Sword againſt the Engliſh, after ſeeing ſuch repeated Proofs of their Strength and Valour.

General Huſke lies dangerouſly ill in Albemarle-ſtreet, and General Duroure is alſo very ill of the Gout in Cork-ſtreet.

Extract of a Letter from Saxony, Dec. 12.

"The Auſtrian Army continues in the ſame Poſition round Dreſden, and the Head Quarters are ſtill there; but a good Part of the Cavalry has been ſent into Bohemia, for the Conveniency of better Subſiſtence. As to the King of Pruſſia's Army, the cleareſt Proof of the Advantage it gained at the Battle of Torgau, is, that it now occupies above two Thirds of Saxony, and his Pruſſian Majeſty has juſt detached 10 or 12,000 Men, to reinforce the Army of the Allies."

According to ſome Letters from Vienna, dated the 6th Inſtant, they talked much of Peace, and it was even ſaid that the Pruſſians had propoſed a Ceſſation of Arms, in order to facilitate the ſettling of Preliminaries; and this is all they can tell us about the Matter.

They write from Naumburgh, that the Pruſſians have exacted heavy Contributions from Saxony, both in ready Money and Recruits. The whole of the Contributions is eſtimated at Two Millions Sixty-nine Thouſand Four-Hundred and Five Crowns, excluſive of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe. This Sum is to be paid to the Military Directory eſtabliſhed at Leipſick.

From Altena we have advice, that the Pruſſians have exacted a Million and a Half of Crowns from the Dutchy of Mecklenburgh, beſides Recruits and Proviſions.

Letters from Vienna of the 10*th Inſtant, contradict thoſe of the* 6*th, and leave no Hopes of Peace, unleſs the King of Pruſſia will grant the Empreſs Queen, as much as might reaſonably be expected from him, if he had been conſtantly beaten.*

Advices from Paris ſay, that they are ſtill very Apprehenſive of ſeeing much Work cut out for the Houſe of Auſtria in Italy.

From Stockholm we hear, that the Ferment in the Dyet of Sweden is ſtill very violent; the Particulars of which ſhall be given in our next.

Dec. 31. The Waters of the Leck, in Holland, are ſo ſwelled, as to have roſe 58 Inches above the Mark at which they ring the Alarm-Bell; but by draining the Dykes, they apprehend they are no longer in Fear of an Inundation.

We have nothing but melancholy Accounts from the Netherlands, of Rivers overflowing their Banks; at Nimeguen they were obliged to go along the Streets in Boats, upon their neceſſary Occaſions. In the Province of Zutphen, they not only have Inundations to fear, but, to complete their Misfortune, the Sickneſs has again broke out among their Cattle.

Extract of a Letter from Hamburgh, Dec. 20.

"The Talk of Peace is again renewed: Sanguine in their Expectations, the Friends to Humanity form Projects, and give them to the contending Powers. Alas! I fear the Flames of War have not yet got to a ſufficient Height; the Spirit with which they are raiſing Recruits in the Auſtrian and Pruſſian Dominions, is no Indication of a pacific Temper. Our Politicians, indeed, have given up one of the Sileſias to the Empreſs Queen; but will the Pruſſian Monarch abide by their Deciſions? But ſhould Neceſſity make theſe two Powers patch up a Peace, who is to indemnify the King of Poland? Will the Ruſſians relinquiſh their Project of getting Footing in the Empire? Will the French ſubmit tamely to all their Loſſes? Believe me, that deſirable Event is far from taking Place; there is no Expectation of ſeeing the Spirit of Moderation introduced at the Court of Vienna; nor are we ſure that Ambition has not found a Reſidence at B-------; for my Part, I expect, at leaſt, one more bloody Campaign before Matters can be adjuſted, and even then Victory muſt declare on one Side or the other; drawn Battles but inflame each Party, and give them a keener Appetite to cut each others Throats: What horrid Work! from Rage and Ambition, my Friend, good Lord deliver us."

A Letter from Hanover ſays, that Proviſions were ſo ſcarce, that the Inhabitants paid Half a Crown a Pound for Butter, and Two Shillings for the worſt Sort of Sugar; and that Wood was bought by the Pound.

"The Dyet are ſtill in a Ferment. On the 27th paſt the Houſe of Nobles reſolved, that Baron Ranterhielm, who was expelled the Houſe at the laſt Dyet, on Account of ſome Memorials which he preſented to the Houſe, ſhould be re-admitted. This Lord is a Man of great Abilities, and entirely devoted to the Court Party, which prevails more and more.

"It was alſo reſolved, that, for the future, all the Houſes ſhould meet together twice a Week, namely, Mondays and Thurſdays.

"Three remarkable Memorials, couched in ſtrong Terms, were preſented, and read; one by Count Charles Emilius Lewenhaupt; and two others by the Aſſeſſor Eſſenberg; complaining, that the Nation had been involved in the preſent War, without aſſembling the States, and obtaining their Conſent; and requiring that an Account ſhould be laid before the Dyet of the Charges incurred by the War, and of the Application of the foreign Subſidies; and ſetting forth the fatal Conſequences of the War to the Nation, by occaſioning ſuch a Scarcity of Money, and raiſing the Price of Proviſions ſo much, as, in a great Meaſure, to put a Stop to Induſtry.

"It is much to be feared, that these Matters will occasion warm Debates; it being a general Opinion among the Nobles, that engaging in the German War, without the Consent of the States, was an Infringement of the fundamental Constitution of the Kingdom."

It is said, that if a Peace should not take Place before the Summer, a Fleet of forty Ships of the Line, under four Commanders, to form four different Squadrons along the Enemy's Coasts, will certainly sail, the utmost Diligence in the Equipment of which is now absolutely making.

Admiral Boscawen is now thought to be in a fair Way of Recovery.

Yesterday General Huske lay at the Point of Death, at his House, in Albemarle-street.

By Captain Bartlet, arrived at Boston in five Weeks from Bristol, we have the following Advices.

The following is the Prussian Account of the Battle of Torgau on the 3d of November last, written by an Officer of Distinction, who was in the Action.

THE Third Instant the King brought M. Daun to a Battle, by Stratagem. His Majesty first caused the Enemy to be harrassed by a few independent Battalions, and some Squadrons of Hussars, whilst Gen. Hulsen, with a Body of 10,000 Men, turned a Wood that lay on the Left of the Austrians, and took Post on that Spot, without being discovered by the Enemy. This General had positive Orders to attempt nothing more till he should hear our Cannon roar; and the Prince of Wirtemberg was then to advance likewise, with his Corps, towards the Enemy's Right Wing, and endeavour to get Possession of the rising Grounds. In the mean while our Light Troops kept harrassing the Austrians, and the Battalions and Squadrons actually at Blows, having been successively supported on both Sides, the Affair soon became general.----One of our independent Battalions having then mastered one of the Enemy's Batteries, turned the Cannon against them; and as soon as General Hulsen and the Prince of Wirtemberg heard the Report of this Artillery, they fell with great Impetuosity, one upon the Left, and the other upon the Right of the Austrian Army, whilst the King with the rest of the Troops attacked it in Front.

M. Daun, seeing himself thereby forced to come to a set Battle, made his greatest Efforts against our Left Wing, and smartly repulsed it; but Gen. Ziethen hastening thither full Gallop with a Part of the Cavalry of the Right, where there was not near so much Danger, he found Means to cut off the Communication of the Enemy's Horse with their Entrenchments, and drove them into a narrow Spot, where they could not act but with great Difficulty. The King no sooner perceived this, than he rode up to his Left Wing, and having rallied it, he not only sustained Gen. Ziethen, but caused the Enemy to be attacked so vigorously on every Side, that our Infantry having forced their Intrenchments, cleared the Way for our Cavalry, who made a surprising Slaughter.

The Austrians then began to run. We pursued them till it grew dark; but by Favour of the Night they passed the Elbe on 3 Bridges kept for that Purpose, and in the Passage they lost a great many Men. Their Loss in killed and drowned, may be estimated at about 7000, viz. 4000 slain in the Field of Battle, and the Rest lost in the River. We have made about 10,000 Prisoners, among whom are the Generals Wallis, Anger, Ried, St. Igno, and Batthiani, with 300 other Officers. We are well assured that Field Marshal Count Daun is wounded, as also General Buccow, and Prince Clement of Saxony, and General Waldner are among the Slain.

The Trophies of our Victory are 12 Colours, 15 Standards, and many Pieces of Cannon. Our Loss in the Whole, reckoning the Wounded and Missing along with the Killed, may amount to between 4 and 5000 Men. Among the Dead are Gen. Finkenstein, Lieut. Colonel Schwerin, the Count of Anhalt, and Major Zedinar. Among the Wounded we find the Margrave Charles, and the Generals Hulsen, Stutterheim, and Syburg. Generals Bulow and Asseburgh are missing.

We are preparing to march forwards, and to make all the Advantages of our Victory that the Season will allow. The King's Breast was grazed by a Ball.

The Number of Seamen to be employed for the Service of the ensuing Year, is to be 70,000, including Marines, which is the same Number that was granted for the present Year.

Dec. 13. The Grand Expedition from Portsmouth is countermanded. Orders were sent Yesterday from the War-Office for the Troops to disembark, and march into Winter Quarters. Thus far may be depended on.---Some pretend, or rather conjecture, that this is occasioned by new Proposals of Peace that are not inadmissible.

There are many Conjectures about this Fleet; 'tis generally said to be countermanded till the Month of February; one Reason assigned for it is, and a very probable One, that as the Campaign in Germany must be nearly at an End; on Account of the Season, the French might march a Body of Forces into their own Country, instead of staying in Germany; in order to defeat the Enterprise of the English Fleet, and return in Time to join their Grand Army before the Operations of another Campaign could be opened: On the other Hand, it is said, that the French finding our Court determined to push their Successes, have made some fresh Overtures for bringing about a general Pacification, under the Mediation of his Catholic Majesty, which seems to be somewhat attended to.

The East-India Company have received Advice from the President of Bombay, dated the 27th of May last, giving an Account, that since the Affair at Wandewash, the Garrisons of Permacoil and Allumparva had surrendered Prisoners of War to our Forces there; and that these Successes had also been attended with the Surrender of the important Settlement of Karical, to the Forces under Admiral Cornish and Major Monson, with all the Garrison Prisoners of War. The Enemy are now by this Means reduced to their single Port of Pondicherry.

The Company has also received Advice, by Way of Bassora, that Pondicherry was closely blocked up by Sea and Land; and that the French Horse, consisting of 400 Hussars, had deserted to our Camp. Gazette.

December 18. At a Council of War held by his Prussian Majesty, on the Eve of the Battle fought at Torgau, on the 3d ult. he spoke to his Generals in the following Manner, "Gentlemen, I have called you together, not to ask your Advice, but to tell you, that To-morrow I shall attack M. Daun. I know he is in a good Position, but it is also such that a Retreat is impracticable. If I beat him, most of his Army must be taken, or perish in the Elbe; if we are beat, we must all die, and I the first. I am weary of this War, and you must be so too. To-morrow will decide it." Amsterdam Gazette.

Our Correspondent at Plymouth writes, that notwithstanding the secret Expedition is to be laid aside at present, for some very particular Reasons, they have Orders to finish with the utmost Diligence all the Ships now upon the Stocks, and likewise those that are almost ready for Sea; for which Purpose they work double Tides, Sundays not excepted. He adds, that the Expedition Fleet will certainly sail very early in the Spring, with an additional Number of Ships from that Port; and that the Report there is, it is designed against Belleisle. From this it appears that Peace (so much wished for) is not so near at Hand as some imagined.

The freshest Advices from Saxony say, that his Prussian Majesty made several Attempts to come at Dresden, before he resolved to put his Troops into Winter Quarters, but found the Enterprize would be attended with too much Difficulty and Danger. They likewise tell us, that he is now thinking seriously of Methods to negociate a Peace this Winter, and a Person of Note is to repair for this Purpose to Versailles, the King only waiting for an Answer from London, to sound the Disposition of France.

The Austrian Prisoners in the Hands of the Prussians amount to 36,000 Men; and the Prussians who are Prisoners to the Austrians, amount to 28,000. An Exchange of Prisoners is soon expected.

It is now said that the Parliament will be dissolved in March, and that the Coronation will be deferred till after the general Election is over.

Lieutenant Colonel Haviland is appointed Colonel of the 3d Battalion of Royal Americans, in the Room of Col. Lawrence, deceased.

Lieutenant Colonel Burton is appointed Colonel of a new Regiment in America.

Lieutenant General Anstruther, of the 26th Regiment, is dead.

It is certain that our Troops destined for the Expedition are disembarked at Portsmouth, and the Men of War and Transports are ordered into that Harbour.

Dec. 20. According to some private Advices, we may soon receive some interesting News from Spain; the Marquis de la Ensenada, it seems, is to open a grand Scene; but they give us no Particulars.

Notwithstanding all Reports to the contrary, we are assured, that the greatest Harmony subsists among all his Majesty's Ministers.

It is said, that his Majesty, in Consideration of the War with France, has forbid all French Wines, of any Sort, to be drank in the Palace, not even excepting his own Table. It is calculated this will be a Saving of at least 40,000 l. per Annum.

Dec. 27. Some of the Expedition Transports are ordered to be kept in Readiness to receive Troops, as supposed for Germany.

Our last Letters from Paris tell us, That in Consequence of the Resolution lately taken to push the War chiefly, if not wholly, by Land, the Court proposes to augment their Army in Germany to 200,000 Men; 140,000 under Marshal Broglio, and 60,000 in the Lower Rhine, under the Marquis de Castries.

Jan. 1. Private Letters from Stockholm inform us, that the Government have made some Overtures for an Accommodation with the King of Prussia.

The Swedes are flying before Prince Eugene of Wirtemberg, who has laid the whole Dutchy of Mecklenburgh under Contribution.

Jan. 3. Letters from Francfort, of the 16th ult. advise, that it was currently reported that divers Ministers of the several Powers are soon to meet at Leipsic, to settle the Preliminaries for a general Peace.

The Austrian Account of the late Battle between the King of Prussia and Count Daun, near Torgau, says, That it is impossible yet to calculate our Loss, we conjecture it may amount to 10 or 12,000 Killed, Wounded and Missing. The Artillery which was left on the Field of Battle was occasioned by the Horses being killed or wounded, or gone away.----That they had taken from the Prussians 39 Colours, two Standards, and eight Pieces of Cannon. That they took Prisoners Lieut. Gen. Finkenstein, Lieut. Gen. Bulow, several Colonels and Officers of Rank, about 100 other Officers, near 4000 Subalterns and private Men; so that they judge the Prussians must have lost at least 20,000 Men.

Friday last Captain Smith arrived here from Barbados. In going into that Island he was chased by a French Privateer for three Hours, at the Distance of a Musket-shot, but got clear, after the Enemy had fired many Cannon-shot at his Vessel, one of which took him between Wind and Water.---And Captain Powell, from this Place, the Day before he got to Barbados, fell in with two French Privateers, and would have been taken, had not a Letter of Marque Ship, of 28 Guns, 12, 9 and 6 Pounders, and 60 Men, engaged, and beat them both off.

And whereas the Manner in which this illegal Trade is conducted, is very diſagreeable to many of the Indians, is productive of many and great Evils, and, if not prevented, will (as hath been repreſented by ſome ſenſible and ſober Perſons among them) tend to alienate their Affections from the Engliſh. SCHEME

Of a LOTTERY for raiſing 3000 Pieces of Eight, for the Uſe of the COLLEGE, ACADEMY, and CHARITABLE SCHOOLS of PHILADELPHIA.

THIS extenſive Seminary of Learning, by the Generoſity of Individuals, having now been carried on for Ten Years, to the Credit and Emolument of the Province, every Perſon in it has had ſufficient Opportunity to ſatisfy himſelf of its Uſefulneſs. Great Sums of Money have been expended in fitting up the ſeveral Schools, repairing the public Hall, and purchaſing a Philoſophical Apparatus; ſufficient Maſters have alſo been provided, in the ſeveral Branches of Literature; two Charity-Schools, containing Eighty Boys, and Forty Girls, have been conſtantly maintained, and in them many poor Children, that would otherwiſe have been left deſtitute, have been rendered uſeful to the Community, and are now making a Figure in it; from all which an Expence of near Eight Hundred Pounds per Annum ariſes to the Truſtees, above the Income of the Schools, the Advantage of which accrues entirely to the Public, in the Eaſe and Cheapneſs of Education.

In order, therefore, to compleat a Capital for the Defraying of this annual Expence, and to erect ſuch additional Buildings as the Growth and preſent Circumſtances of the Inſtitution render abſolutely neceſſary, the Truſtees have been obliged to have Recourſe to ſmall Lotteries. And 'tis hoped the following Scheme will meet with all due Encouragement from the Friends of Learning and the Public.

IT is generally acknowledged, that a Variety of Steeples of different Form, beautifies Cities, and renders the Proſpect more agreeable. And whereas a conſiderable Sum of Money has been laid out (ſome Time ſince) upon one, adjoining to the Preſbyterian Church in Arch-ſtreet; which for Want of being finiſhed, neither gives Pleaſure to the Eye, nor adds to the Beauty of the City; and Help being needed to compleat the above Deſign, it is thought neceſſary to requeſt it in the Way of a Lottery; which it is hoped generous Perſons, of different Societies, and Denominations, who wiſh well to the Credit and Weal of the Community in general; Perſons who are deſirous to increaſe the Ornaments of this large and growing Metropolis, will freely encourage.

N. B. What is got by the Lottery, will, without Fail, be applied towards finiſhing the aforeſaid Steeple, as ſoon as Workmen and Materials can be had.

The large Number of midling Prizes is alſo a great Advantage; and the Deduction is but ſmall, being only Fifteen per Cent. The Drawing to begin punctually on the Thirteenth Day of April next, or ſooner, if ſooner full. The Prizes to be publiſhed in this Gazette, and the Pennſylvania Journal, and the Prize-money to be paid as ſoon as the Drawing ſhall be finiſhed, the aforeſaid Deduction to be firſt made. Prize-money not demanded in ſix Months after the Publication of the Prizes, to be deemed as generouſly given to the Uſe of the ſaid Steeple, and to be applied accordingly. The following Gentlemen are appointed Managers, viz. Thomas Bourne, William Hodge, Alexander Huſton, John Bleakely, William Henry, John M'Michael, Gunning Bedford, William Ruſh, John Wallace, Daniel Clark, Nathan Cook, John Chevalier, Charles Pettit, and John Byard, who are to give Bond, and be upon Oath, that they will truly execute the Truſt in them repoſed. Tickets may be had of the ſaid Managers, at their reſpective Dwelling-houſes, William Bradford, at the London Coffee-houſe, William Dunlap, at the Poſt-Office, and David Hall, at the New-Printing-Office, in Market-ſtreet.
